D.C. Negotiators Seek 'Mystery Man'

By FRANK LaPIERRE

Daly City Scavenger Co. representatives and Teamster Union officials were attempting to locate a man who identified himself as "Jose Delgado" before the City Council last week. week.

Delgado purportedly was a specially chosen representative assigned to negotiate a new contract between workers and the scavenger company.

He said he was a Teamster's Union negotiator and was committed to protecting the rights of the predominantly Chicano wokers.

The appearance of Delgado before the council shook top level scavenger company and some Teamster Union officials because both sides are now entering into serious negotiations on a new contract.

Teamster negotiators Robert Morales and Fernando Bussi, of Local 350, Sanitary Truck Drivers and Helpers, International Brotherhood of Teamsters, said yesterday "there is no such person as Jose Delgado on our negotiating team."

"We don't even think there is a member of our union (local) by that name." Bussi said from his office at 1139 Mission St. in San Francisco.

Delgado, who gave his address as 3522 17th St. San Francisco, made a verbal statement to the council on the plight of the workers.

He was instructed by Vice Mayor Victor Kyriakis to submit a signed statement to the City Clerk for the official files.

However, "Delgado" never showed up at City Hall, as he said he would, to offer the statement.

An employee of the City Clerk's Office said Delgado had visited her office last week and purchased a copy of the the Daly City-Scavenger Company agreement now in effect.

Monday night Delgado was accompanied by several persons who were "generally accepted as scavenger company employes," a city hall spokesman said.

Scavenger Company President Al Sereni said he brought the incident to the attention of Bussi and Morales during a negotiating session following the Monday night council meeting and was told what The Times had learned — no such person existed on the negotiating team.

The reason for the confrontation and the true identity of Delgado remains a mystery. An intensive investigation by all concerned is now underway, it was learned.

There was some speculation on the part of city and scavenger company officials that an "outside agency" was attempting to disrupt the delicate negotiations at a time when good faith must be established by all sides.

Meanwhile, a scavenger negotiator said the two sides in the talks "are miles apart" with teamsters asking for package increases "in excess of 100 per cent."

BART Trains to D.C.

A Plan to Meet Deadline

Those Bay Area Rapid Transit District (BART) trains may yet pull into the Daly City terminus station on time — Sept. 24, 1973.

Jack M. Barron, project manager of the San Francisco Transit Task Force, displaying a "Where there's a will, there's a way" talent for improvising, offered a temporary plan for BART to provide service on the entire system by the deadline set last year.

North County officials — especially in Daly City — were hopeful Barron's plan will be accepted by BART and, once put into force, will work.

Daly City, hand in hand with BART officials, is mapping big plans for a Sept. 24 celebration, including a gigantic barbecue, and much speechmaking about the future of the rapid transit.

But without a BART train rolling into the station some observers see the celebration as ludicrous.

There was a recent discussion centering around the possibility of BART sending a token train through the Transbay (Oakland-San Francisco) tube and on out to Daly City, San Mateo County's only BART station.

Now Barron's plan for providing a "loop network" that would swing around the system on a less frequent schedule could be the napkin needed to keep egg off local officialdom's faces.

What Barron plans, assuming the BART strike ends soon and doesn't add to the myriad other obstacles that have combined to delay the system's full operation, is not a long-range answer to the district's problems, he told a BART committee meeting yesterday.

BART's biggest headache presently is the complicated computerized automatic train switching system that controls rolling stock along the route. The computer is supposed to keep track of dozens of trains rushing between dozens of stations in the 75-mile system and safely bring these trains into the stations on time.

There have been numerous "bugs" in the far-flung automatic system and the State Public Utilities Commission has refused to grant the overall network a green light to carry patrons through the trans-bay tube until all safety features of the switching system are checked out.

The answer to providing full service, pending the State PUC approval, is simply a 112-mile "loop" that would necessitate some passengers changing trains to get to their destinations.

Here is how Barron's plan would work.

A train would start in Fremont and run up the East Bay line through the trans-bay tube to Daly City. It would then reverse itself and go back through San Francisco and the tube to downtown Oakland. Berkeley and Richmond, finally looping around and heading south from Richmond back through Berkeley, Oakland and to Hayward and Fremont.

MacArthur to Concord line passengers would use a shuttle service and transfer onto the loop line at MacArthur station in Oakland.

While some BART directors, including William Reedy, chairman of the engineering committee of BART, showed interest in the plan and ordered their staff to come back with a full feasibility report, there are others who express a desire to wait until the system can go into operation as it was designed to do.

The "Personalized safety system" now in effect on BART's East Bay line would remain in effect. This system is for station personnel at each station to telephone to the next station to see if it is clear before allowing the in-station train to continue.

Each train heading through the tube to San Francisco and Daly City would have to be cleared by this telephone system. For this reason some BART officials feel the system will not be able to cope with the passenger volume.

Critics of the plan also point up the fact that rush-hour commuters will be piling up on station platforms as they attempt to change trains to get to their destinations.

Even with these obstacles, however, Daly City government, civic and business leaders hope the September deadline is met.

Mount San Bruno Mystery

Dead Man Informer?

Sheriff's office investigators are probing the possibility that John Benjy Ellis, 21, of San Francisco, whose body was discovered on San Bruno Mountain early Saturday, was slain because he was suspected of being a police informant.

Sheriff's Lt. Richard Platt said today that it has not been determined if Ellis was shot and killed elsewhere, or if he was slain at the spot near Guadalupe Canyon Parkway where his body was discovered by a caretaker at 2:15 a.m. Saturday.

Ellis' body, a bullet hole in the back of the head, was found about 20 feet off the parkway near Tank Road by Vincent J. Marsili, a caretaker for Crocker Estates, who was making a check of gates in a fence surrounding the Crocker property.

Deputy Sheriff Robert Reed reported that the wound in the head appeared to be from a small caliber weapon. There also was a bullet hole through the victim's left hand, indicating he might have raised it in a defensive motion as the shot was fired, Reed said.

Platt reported that Det. Sgt. Brendan Maguire, who is in charge of the investigation, is attempting to trace Ellis' movements Friday night.

Marsili informed Reed that the body definitely was not at the spot where he found it at 9 o'clock when he made an earlier gate check.

JESD Ousters: 15 Reasons Why

Oakland Atty. William Johnston, special consultant on drafting charges against ousted Jefferson Elementary School District Administrators Frank Greenwood and Roger Barthuli, was to file his answer to a petition for write of mandate in Superior Court Thursday.

Friday was the deadline for filing the "show cause" actions of the school board majority in firing the district's top two employes on July 11 following an hour-long closed-door meeting.

Johnston, has listed 15 reasons for the board's actions in terminating Greenwood's services and six allegations of failure to carry out the duties of a school district administrator against Barthuli.

Johnston said Greenwood as superintendent, had breached his contract with the district when he:

"Failed to adequately serve as the chief executive officer of (the) respondent (the JESD school board); failed to properly oversee the general supervision of the district's operation; failed to adequately act as secretary and adviser to (the) respondent, and; failed to act as respondent's representative to meet and confer with the certificated employes council."

Instead of meeting and conferring himself, Greenwood got the permission of the board majority to hire an outside firm to negotiate on behalf of the district.

Acting Dist. Supt. Keith Breon last week relieved the firm of Labor Relations, Inc. from the negotiations now under way and took over the talks himself.

Johnston also charged that Greenwood failed to carry out duties expected of a school district chief under the State Education Code, specifically Section 536.

Greenwood also failed to properly supervise the total instruction program of the district and did not carry out policies and directives of the school board, Johnston charged.

D.C. Officer Saves Life Of Youth

A seven year old Daly City boy was brought back to life by a passing police officer after he was hit by a car on heavily traveled Mission Street in Daly City and stopped breathing Sunday.

The child, Jerome Sandoval of 28 Como St. darted into traffic from the roadside at 4 p.m., witnesses told police.

Several cars managed to avoid hitting the child, but a car driven by Earnesto de la Cruz Tingol address unknown, struck the boy hurling him some 70 feet down the roadway.

He suffered a broken leg severe head injuries and multiple internal injuries.

Officer Dennis Prator arrived at the scene and found the child had stopped breathing.

He applied mouth-to-mouth resuscitation and restored the child's breathing before rushing him to nearby Mary's Help Hospital where he underwent surgery.

New Hearings Requested on Bruno Peak

The city of Daly City is seeking a writ of mandate asking the San Mateo County Superior Court to set new hearings relative to the County Local Agency Formation Commission action designating San Bruno Mountain to be in the sphere of influence of Brisbane and delegating overall supervision of the development to the county.

Superior Court Judge Melvin E. Cohn declined a petition, however, that he order the County Board of Supervisors to cancel a scheduled hearing for 2 p.m. Tuesday to establish a public service area to provide various services for the mountain.

Albert E. Polonsky, city attorney for Daly City, is seeking a writ of mandate to require the Local Agency Formation Commission (LAFC) to set new hearings relative to the sphere of influence.

His petition contends that the LAFC hearing delegating the sphere of influence to Brisbane was "not in accordance with law" in that the report of the LAFC Executive Officer B. Sherman Coffman concerning his recommendation was not disseminated to affected cities, that there is evidence of testimony taken outside of public hearing, that the report of the executive officer was recieved after the hearing was closed and that Coffman failed to report on all matters required by law.

The suit asks that the Board of Supervisors be restrained from proceeding with formation of the county service area until a determination is made by the court as to the validity of the LAFC action.

Judge Cohn said, however, in refusing the temorary order, that it should be up to the Board of Supervisors to determine if there has been error.

Giants' Coach Hurt Battling Gunmen

Giants' coach Andy Gilbert is proudly sporting some cuts and bruises today after tangling with two would-be robbers in a South San Francisco motel parking lot on Thursday.

Gilbert was on his way to his car about 1:30 p.m. when he was confronted by two men and engaged in what was described as "idle conversation."

Before he knew what was happening, one of the men jammed a .9-mm pistol into Gilbert's ribs and said, "This is a stick up."

Instead of handing over his wallet, Gilbert wheeled and wrestled one of the men to the ground. The gunman's accomplice began hitting Gilbert with the gun.

As Gilbert staggered to his feet, the pair jumped into a car stolen earlier in San Francisco and sped off. Several witnesses to the incident raced to Gilbert's aid; however the attackers made good their escape.

South San Francisco police recovered the stolen auto nearby but the pair had stolen another car, it was later learned.

Gilbert, meanwhile, was taken to St. Luke's hospital for treatment of his severely bruised and cut arm.

JESD Budget Hearing In Daly City Today

Public hearing and discussion of the Jefferson Elementary School District budget — some $10.2 million — will top tonight's agenda of the board of trustees scheduled to start at 8 p.m., at the district's Administration Building, 101 Lincoln Ave., Daly City.

Temporary Business Manager John Lynch, who will return to his post as business manager for the Millbrae School District on August 2, is expected to present a pared-down budget, with alternative proposals for meeting it.

Lynch was hired to assist the acting-superintendent, Keith Breon, in preparing the annual budget which must be transmitted to the County Schools Superintendent's Office by August 10.

Because of pending legislation and teacher talks that are still underway, Lynch drew up several alternate proposals, designed to meet various circumstances regarding revenues and expenditures.

Also on the agenda are job outlines for school district management positions, and revised board policies for non-certificated personnel.

D.C. Bathtub Death a Mystery

The body of Katie Williams, 31, the estranged wife of a San Francisco Airport worker, was found shortly after 2 p.m. on Friday the 13th face down in her bathtub at 56 San Miguel Ave., Daly City, by her sister.

San Mateo County Coroner's investigators said death was by drowning, that Mrs. Williams had been dead for several hours and that there were no visible marks on her body.

All toxicological reports were negative and she had not been drinking.

Her home was immaculate and everything was neatly in its place.

Her clothes were piled on her bed.

But the more police investigated the death of Katie Williams, the deeper the mystery became.

For one thing she was face down in the bathtub.

For another her purse was gone. Also missing was her brother's car which she had borrowed because her auto was under repair.

The locks on Mrs. Williams home are "dead bolt locks." A key is needed to enter and a key is needed to leave.

The car is a maroon, two-door 1965 Mercury Parkland, license number ZTW '65.

Police said the car was spotted several hours before the body was found in downtown San Francisco by te victim's brother Freeman White, owner of the car.

He tried to follow the car, but lost it in heavy traffic.

White told Detective Sgt. Ed Guzman and detective Harry Lax a stranger was at the wheel of his car.

He described the man as "black, with an Afro-hair style."

It is this man police want to questin in connection with the death of Mrs. Williams.

Shortly after midnight on July 18 — five days after her concerned sister entered the home and found the body — the car was found by police abandoned in the Fillmore District of San Francisco.

It appeared to have been thoroughly ashed and cleaned, according to Lax.

A crime lab specialist forced open the trunk. It was empty "and very clean."

The victim's husband, Rudolph, is a custodian at International Airport. He could shed no light in the matter, police said.

Although separated from his wife, they had remained on friendly terms, police said.

Anyone having information on the car or its driver is asked to call Detective Lax or Guzman.

'Who's in Charge,' Question in SSF

BY JACK BIK

"Who is in charge around here?"

That is the question facing South San Francisco having business, or perhaps a complaint, at City Hall.

Much of city government is being operated by "acting" department heads.

South San Francisco has no permanently appointed city manager, city planner, assistant city planner, city engineer, public works director, parks and recreation director, or building inspector.

After a stormy year, in which he was involved in an experiment in which a city of 47,000 persons contracted with a private engineering firm to perform various city services, City Mgr. Gale Dreisbach is leaving. He handed in his resignation last month and plans to leave by July 31, when the city budget is completed.

Both City Planner Dan Pass and Assistant City Planner Bill Timmons took "deferred retirements" soon after.

Actually, there is more than just one city engineer missing. Just over a year ago, when the City Council approved the contract with VTN, the entire engineering staff of five found their jobs eliminated. Now that the contract with VTN is over, and the council has decided to end their experiments, the city is short an entire engineering department.

Chief Building Inspector Leonard Pittz has not been replaced. Ray Ghilardi, veteran city building official, has been acting department head since Pittz resigned in protest of VTN taking over his department.

Over a year has passed since Robert Mabey quit as director of parks and recreation. Dick Milkovich, formerly of Sunnyvale, recently was named acting director, but final determination on the post might have to await a decision on the form the department ultimately will take.

Virtually the only major department heads, other than elected City Clerk and City Treasurer — seem to be Director of Finance Ed Alario, Fire Chief Lawrence Toellman and Police Chief Sal Rosano.

At the moment, despite certain criticism at times of all three department heads earlier in the year their positions seem to be as secure as can be in South San Francisco's turbulent politics.

However, this week even the Police Department has an acting head. Capt. Jim Datzman, with Rosano recuperating from a bout with the flu. Some say it was simply overwork. Rosano spent last week at Kaiser Hospital and is recovering at home this week.

Alario next Wednesday will become acting city manager, possibly for months, until a new manager is appointed. Thus, the Finance Department may need an acting director.

Meanwhile — it could just be summer doldrums — the recent election of Terry Mirri does not appear to have resulted in creation of a new majority on the City Council.

Frank Mammini, a member of the old majority, has been on a vacation. Mirri still seems to be breaking in on his post as new councilman. Pat Ahern and Bill Borba, once a two-man minority wrile fighting VTN, no longer seem to be working together.

Mayor Warren Steinkamp often appears to be mediating between the two men who previously had been fighting him.

In short, like the rest of South San Francisco, there does not seem to be anyone in charge on the City Council, either.

Quieter Airport Predicted

Conditions will be quieter, not noiser, when the San Francisco Airport expands.

This is what a group of five staff members of the airport, headed by Dan Beier, told the South San Francisco City Council at a special conference held Wednesday night.

As a result of the meeting, councilmen will consider a resolution, at their adjourned budget meeting Monday night, asking that San Francisco pave its new half-mile runway extension into the bay as soon as possible.

This extension, Beier told them would enable jets taking off over South San Francisco to gain altitude. Airplanes which have been taking off toward South San Francisco, then turning north over Bayshore Freeway to avoid the city, will be able to turn north considerably before reaching Bayshore.

The runway extension has been filled for some time; airport authorities have been waiting until the land settles sufficiently.

Councilmen also complained about the kerosene smell from jet engines as well as the noise.

Beier told them that with the new and quieter engines being installed, such as in the new wide-bodied Lockheed 1011 airplanes, there will be much less noise, rather than more as the airport expands.

He displayed to the council the plans for the ultimate expansion of the airport, to 1985.

Bruno Water For Project In Pacifica

The city of San Bruno will be selling water wholesale to the North Coast County Water District for use at the Cozzolino 144-unit townhouse development in Pacifica.

The city council approved the recommendation of City Engineer Leo Van Dusen Monday.

Van Dusen pointed out that San Bruno presently supplies wholesale water to the upper Linda Mar area of Pacifica, while the NCCWD in turn supplies wholesale water to San Bruno for sale to the Crystal Springs apartment complex.

The Cozzolino development is at the intersection of Sharp Park Road and North College Drive, just across the San Bruno boundary. San Bruno has a 12-inch water main which passes directly in front of this development, according to Van Dusen.

As part of the approved recommendation, Van Dusen is to negotiate with the developer to construct at his cost an additional pump.

Van Dusen said this addition to the San Bruno system would in no way affect the water pressure for San Bruno's Pacific Heights residents.

Asked if the city would make a profit on the arrangement, Van Dusen replied that the city was "just making a fair return."

COMMISSIONED

SAN ANTONIO — Michael J. Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Kelly of 224 Minerva Lane, Pacifica, has been commissioned a second lieutenant in the U. S. Air Force upon graduation from the School of Military Sciences for Officers at Lackland AFB, Tex.

Lieutenant Kelly, selected through competitive examination for attendance at the school, is being assigned to Mather AFB, Calif.

More About Ousters

Greenwood cited by Johnston in his response to the writ:

"Failed to adequately supervise (Roger Barthuli) in charge of business; failed to adequately serve as liaison officer between employes of the school district and (school board); failed to formally evaluate school site administrators (a reference to the controversial Savage School site in the St. Francis Heights section of Daly City); inadequately serving as public spokesman regarding the district's operation and the actions of the (school board);

"Failed to adequately direct or cause to be directed school district committees; failed to appropriately advise respondent regarding personnel matters within the school district; failed to properly receive and investigate parental complaints, and; failed to maintain proper control and the preservation of a suitable learning environment within the school district."

Johnston said earlier he was basing justification for firing the pair on contractual law and not on Section 938 of the State Education Code, which Greenwood and Barthuli, in their petitions, said was violated.

The charges were "generalities," according to Breon, who said he did not think Johnston would "get into any specifics" until it was necessary, if and when the matter comes to trial.

In a 3-1 vote taken behind closed doors before the start of last night's regular meeting at the District Administration Building, the school board agreed to the actions taken by Johnston.

Later in the regular meeting, action to temporarily employ John Lynch as the district's business manager replacing Barthuli was approved in a 3-0 vote, with Trustee James Cranna abstaining.

Cranna and Trustee Edward Tomasello, absent at the meeting, have consistently refused to recognize the ouster of Greenwood and Barthuli and the hiring of Breon and Johnston by the district.

Lynch is now on vacation from his job with the Millbrae Elementary School District and is "lending me a hand in preparation of the annual budget," Breon said.

The business manager is scheduled to be employed by the JESD until Aug. 7 when he will return to the Millbrae district and resume his post there.

Meanwhile, Breon explained the district's annual budget must be prepared and submitted to the county superintendent of schools before Aug. 10.

Bruno Engineer Quits

San Bruno's junior civil engineer Yau Tin Lau has retired from his city post with a blast at ecologists and environmentalists.

In an unexpected response, after receipt of a certificate of appreciation from Mayor Marge Kozkowski last Monday, the normally quiet Lau openly expressed his thoughts on the controversy surrounding Sneath Lane and Crestmoor Canyon.

"This thing, I must say," said the 67-year-old former major project engineer in China during World War II. "I love San Bruno more than ecology. I hate to see San Bruno choked."

Concerning the controversy over the proposed widening of Sneath Lane, Lau criticized those who want to retain the rural flavor by saving as many eucalyptus trees as possible.

The feisty engineer, who lives in Palo Alto, said there is a lesson to be learned by the reported problems with eucalyptus trees in the East Bay. He said Sneath Lane widening "will be a service to the people."

As to Crestmoor Canyon, Lau said it was "a jungle of poison oaks" where, "in the summer, stagnant water becomes a breeding place for mosquitoes."

He said it would, according to his calculations, take two million cubic yards of fill to make the canyon "profitable."

Lau retires this week after nine years with the city. Prior to coming to the city he had worked with Soule Steel Co.

San Brunan Hits a Jackpot

Who says the dollar is dying?

Don't tell that to San Bruno's Luciano Meconi.

He popped a buck into a slot machine at Harold's Club in Reno this week and won $7,946.

Meconi said he would use the money to finance a trip to Italy "if I don't spend it here first."

Meconi wasn't the only fellow to hit the jackpot at Harold's.

About a half-hour prior to his good fortune, a Santa Ana man, Marvin Furman, won $15,520 on a quarter slot machine.

Furman said it was the first jackpot he had ever hit. He added that he had put only $5 into the machine before it paid off.

Bookies Convicted of Bribery

Two men who paid out a total of $6,900 in bribes to a police agent to protect a thriving bookmaking operation were found guilty of bribery and conspiracy to commit bribery and bookmaking by a Superior Court jury in Redwood City Thursday.

The jury found Attillio Joe Spagnuolo, 41, a Millbrae bartender, guilty of 14 counts of bribery and one count of conspiracy. His co-defendant, Ronald Sacco, 39, a San Francisco teamster, was found guilty of two counts of bribery and one count of conspiracy.

The verdict followed 17 hours of deliberation by the jury of six men and six women after a 22-day trial before Judge James T. O'Keefe.

Judge O'Keefe scheduled sentencing for Sept. 5 at 9:30 a.m.

He permitted Sacco to remain free without bail, and Spagnuolo to remain on $15,000 bail pending sentencing, but ordered that the two men conduct no bookmaking operations and agree to submit to search and seizure at any time by law enforcement authorities.

The defendants were arrested last January following an investigation which began when Sgt. Jack Stuart of the San Mateo County Organized Crime Unit was approached by Sacco and offered a bribe to protect a north county bookmaking operation.

Stuart was directed to go along with the bribe offer, and, during the course of the investigation, was paid $1,100 by Sacco and $5,900 by Spagnuolo, according to testimony at the trial.

Sacco testified that he had been involved in bookmaking for two years and that in one 6-months period his gross handle was $1,340,000.

Spagnuolo did not testify. However, other testimony at the trial indicated his one-day take in bookmaking totaled $6,000, according to Assistant District Attorney Robert J. Courshon, who prosecuted the case.

Courshon was high in praise of Stuart's investigation, stating it is seldom that a police official is able to infiltrate into an organized criminal operation to ganized criminal operation to the extent which Stuart accomplished.

Judge O'Keefe, on motion of Courshon, also imposed a condition of the defendants remaining free pending sentencing that they make no attempt to contact Stuart.

Sacco, defended by attorney Jerry Ladar, of San Francisco, currently is serving five years probation on a suspended state prison sentence following a guilty plea in December, 1971, following his indictment by the County Grand Jury on bookmaking charge.

Sacco also was convicted in February, 1972, on a federal charge of bookmaking. He is appealing a six-month federal prison sentence in that matter.

Spagnuolo was defended in the bribery-conspiracy trial by attorney George Engler, of San Francisco.

Homes Banned Near Airport On Coast

San Mateo County's Regional Planning Commission Thursday night upheld the Airport Land Use Committee's refusal to allow a number of homes to be built in areas of severe noise around Half Moon Bay Airport. It also rejected some permits the ALUC had approved.

The Regional Planning Commission action upheld the rules established by the Airport Land Use Committee in its Interim Airport Land Use Plan adopted in February, although the RPC itself has not adopted nor approved that plan.

The action also clears the way for the first appeals against an Airport Land Use Committee ruling. Such an appeal would not only be the first in this county, but may be the first in the State. San Mateo county has pioneered in establishing an Airport Land Use Committee since such bodies were authorized by state law.

At question in such an action, and at question last night, were the local committee's use of the state's noise standards in establishing areas around airports in which it is said that homes will be too noisy to live in.

A spokesman for the Pacific States Housing corporation commented that the state's "CNEL" or Community Noise Equivalent Level standards are themselves being challenged in court and may prove inapplicable.

In successive votes, RPC members upheld the ALUC refusal of three permits for homes at the north end of the airport, to be built by David Twitchell and five other homes in Moss Beach to be built by Pacific States Housing.

One home in each group was permitted by the ALUC, because of exceptional circumstances and these rulings were upheld by the Regional Planning Committee.

But an Airport Land Use Committee approval of a single home permit for Paul Jarvis to construct a dwelling at 905 Wave Ave., Moss Beach, was rejected by the RPC, and sent back to the sub-committee.

Burlingame Planning Commissioner and RPC member Everett Kindig led the move to reject the Jarvis approval.

He said the Jarvis action had been inconsistent with the ALUC's own rules, and that approval had only been granted on the basis that the builder pleaded ignorance of the county's Interim Airport Land Use Plan.

"This is not a borderline case," said Kindig, "it is definitely inside the noise impact area. It is difficult to think that real estate people and developers did not have some knowledge of the interim plan.

"If we are not consistent, then the whole effort of two years of planning and study is going out the window and we are going to run into some legal problems."

The 16-0 vote returns the Jarvis application to the Airport Land Use Committee for re-consideration. ALUC Chairman R. David Martin voted against supporting the Jarvis application, although he had made the motion for RPC to uphold his committee's action.

With Kindig's remarks, and the Regional Planning Commission rejection, those close to the Commission expect the ALUC to reject the Jarvis action at their next monthly meeting.

Along with the Twitchell and Pacific States Housing applications, the action could then be appealed to the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors as the legislative body having jurisdiction.

Probe Death of Bruno Woman

The death of a 37-year-old San Bruno woman has been tentatively listed as drug overdose, pending final tests by the county coroner.

Found dead in her home at 714 First Ave. was Mary Helen Poppin. Also found in the house, according to police who were called to the scene Saturday morning, were pills, marijuana and other evidence of drugs.

PAINTINGS BY famous American artist Winslow Homer are on display in the Tanforan Shopping Center mall in San Bruno, sponsored by Peoples Gallery. The reproductions include 20 Homer works which helped earn him the title "the most American" artist of the 19th century. "Snap the Whip" is the title of the top picture. "The Dinner Horn" the lower.

CHANGE OF COMMAND — Capt. Robert C. Branham became commanding officer of the Coast Guard Air Station at San Francisco International Airport in colorful ceremonies yesterday. Here, in the time-honored tradition, Capt. Charles E. Larkin, at left, who had been in command since September 1970, passes the Coast Guard flag to Branham. Larkin is being transferred to the Search and Rescue Office at Coast Guard headquarters in Washington, D.C.

Body Washed From Wreck

Divers from the sheriff's office Sunday afternoon searched the bottom of Devil's Slide and discovered the body of Robert Lee Frost, 35, of Stockton, ton, a mechanic with United Air Lines, had been washed from his battered auto and apparently out to sea, the coroner's office reported today.

According to Coroner's Investigator James Donovan, the heavy surf had torn the top off the vehicle, and the hood and doors were gone. The wreckage was half-filled with sand, the divers reported.

No effort will be made to bring the wreckage out, Donovan reported.

Frost drove off the top of a 140-feet high cliff Thursday night when he lost control of his vehicle as an ash from a cigarette became lodged in his eye. A companion, Mevlin Millard, 30, of 384 Granada Drive, South San Francisco, leaped to safety seconds before the car plunged into the darkness.

Frost is survived by his family in Stockton.

A Thief With a Conscience

The so-called gas shortage, like ever-increasing food costs, has prompted many people to improvise in an emergency.

Take this situation, reported Sunday in San Bruno.

According to police, Edith Ireland, of 631 South San Anselmo St., San Bruno, went to her car to find a note and $3.50 attached to the windshield.

The note said that a passing motorist had run out of gas and there were no stations open at that hour of the night.

Therefore, the passerby helped himself to what he thought was $3 worth of gas, but he left $3.50 in case by accident he took a little more.

North County Fraud Case Goes to Trial

A man alleged to have defrauded North County merchants of as much as $100,000 was held to answer on six counts of grand theft by false pretenses in South San Francisco Municipal Court Thursday.

Harry A. Krawetz was bound over to Superior Court, where he will be arraigned on Aug. 7. He has pleaded innocent to all charges.

Meanwhile, a seventh grand theft charge was filed against him, with C&G Electronics of Daly City, the alleged victim. He was arraigned on that charge yesterday and the preliminary examination was set for Aug. 13.

A visiting judge from Yreka, George G. Tyler, presided. Victims testified that Krawetz obtained merchandise from them, on promises to pay and never did.

A misdemeanor charge of "defrauding an innkeeper," the Airport Hilton Inn, was also filed.

Krawetz is being held in County Jail in lieu of $20,000 bail.

According to South San Francisco police, Krawetz had presented himself as owner of Computer Marketing Consultants, a firm police claimed was non-existent, in spite of stationery and business cards that Krawetz was alleged to have had printed. He used a San Francisco address on Market Street but police said it was only a "mail drop."

Appearing yesterday were representatives of Bronstein's Music, South San Francisco Camera, Plaza Furniture and South San Francisco TV, all of South San Francisco, Matthews TV of Daly City, and Bruce Electronics of San Bruno.

The district attorney's office alleges that in the case of the Hilton Inn, the hotel received a teletype the previous day from the comptroller of Computer Marketing Consultants, guaranteeing Krawtez' expense up to $60 per day. Krawetz then appeared and ran up a $308 bill, before he left for other hotels.

Brisbane Nabs Pair for Narco

John Albert Greer, 29, a sprinkler fitter of 433 Kings Road, Brisbane, was arrested Sunday by Brisbane police on charges of possession of marijuana, heroin, and dangerous drugs and narcotics equipment, and of maintaining a place where narcotics are used or sold.

Joseph Blaise Lidwell, 33, a bartender of 325 Visitation Ave., was arrested for possessing mariujuana and being in a place where narcotics are sold.

Details were not available.

Solution May Be Near

N. County Flood Plans

County and North County city officials will meet next Wednesday in South San Francisco to decide, hopefully, on the plan which will be adopted for the alleviation of flooding along Colma Creek.

County Engineer S. H. Cantwell Jr., said he will recommend to the Advisory Committee for the Colma Creek Flood Control Zone the adoption of the proposed $8.4-million project which will provide channel improvements from San Francisco Bay to El Camino Real in South San Francisco.

Cantwell said the plan will provide protection for the 50-year storm — the heaviest storm which can be expected once every 50 years. Furthermore, he stated, the county-backed plan will provide the desired level of flood protection at least cost.

At a hearing earlier this month in Redwood City, officials from South San Francisco indicated they favored a less costly plan, of about $5.3 million, but which would provide channel improvements from the Bay only to a point near Oak Avenue in the vicinity of the North County Courthouse.

Also at Wednesday's meeting, the participating agencies — the county, South San Francisco, Daly City, Colma, San Bruno and Pacifica — will be asked to adopt a schedule for advancing funds to complete the project with repayment to be made from a tax to be levied in the flood control zone.

The amounts to be forwarded by the agencies through 1975-76 will aggregate about $7 million, with $1 million in taxes to be collected during that period. Repayment over a 14-year period will begin in fiscal year 1976-77.

The individual city contributions as proposed in the plan are:

South San Francisco, $4,634,000; Daly City, $1,260,000; San Bruno, $326,000; Colma, $93,000; Pacifica, $7,000; San Mateo County, $175,000.

Pacifica Trip To Searsville

As part of "Ship Wreck Week" the Pacifica city-wide trip will be to Searsville Lake in Woodside Wednesday, August 8 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

This trip is open to all children in Pacifica from 8 to 14 years of age on a first-come basis. Seating is limited. The cost is $1.25 which includes bus transportation, admission and refreshments.

Searsville Lake offers swimming, boating, warm clean beaches, showers and changing areas and a refreshment and snack counter. There will be relays, horse shoes and sculpture contest and games.

Children should bring their own sack lunch or money to buy lunch at the lake. Permission slips may be obtained from recreation leaders and should be returned no later than the deadline date, Tuesday, August 7, by 4:30 p.m.

D.C. Baton Corps Forms

As a climax to the summer baton instruction program the Daly City Recreation Department will offer additional classes for the formation of a marching and twirling corps.

Classes will be designed for both boys and girls and will include instruction in basic twirling and marching.

If enough interest is indicated plans will include the formation of a corps to appear in parades celebrations and local competition.

Council Puts Off Trailer Ban Law

Discussion was hot at Monday night's meeting of the Pacifica City Council as the council finally split 2-2 on overruling the Planning Commission on one more issue —banning of trailers and trucks rentals at neighborhood service stations.

The council decided to hold the matter in abeyance until the fifth member — Don Halverson — can attend.

Dick Meier, representative of the Planning Commission, complained bitterly about the procedure under which the proposal to repeal the ban would be returned again to the commission for review.

"I don't think that the Planning Commission is capable of fulfilling the City Council's wishes," he declared.

The planners, he noted, had held two public hearings on the subject and studied it for numerous meetings, finally voting down a proposal to change the city's zoning code to accommodate rentals by a 6-1 vote.

Councilman Stan Farber held out for the amendment to the zoning code — to permit rentals in C-1 (neighborhood-commercial) zones.

Les Clark, director of the Community Development Department, explained that the problem arose when building inspector Phil Mayor began enforcing a provision in the code, banning rentals in C-1 zones, after this provision had not been enforced for many years.

It had been brought to his attention that such vehicle rentals are allowed only in C-3 (major commercial) or M (manufacturing) zones. Actually, a merchant in a C-1 zone cannot display any merchandise out of doors — not even a stack of tires.

Meier pointed out that since only one of the service stations now renting vehicles might possibly have some room, it was the feeling of the commission that there was no point in changing the ordinance.

The proposed amendment would have added trailer and truck rentals to the uses permitted in a C-1 zone, but only with a permit, requiring a public hearing and various conditions.

"Strict enforcement of this zoning," Farber declared, "would give one business in town a complete monopoly over the rental business. If we are going to give a monopoly like we have to the scavenger company, then we ought to make something out of it."

Meier protested that "what you proposed could get out of hand. Don't forget that lots of people live next door to service stations."

In the final vote, Grace McCarthy sided with Farber, while Harland Minshew and Mayor Aubrey Lumley voted to back the Planning Commission's denial of any change in the present ban.

Farber was disturbed also over an award of a franchise to the American District Telegraph Company of San Francisco as the low bidder among seven firms. Thompson recommended ADT as being one of two firms which offered to provide 20 free alarm positions for the city. ADT was given the edge over the other firm, Wells-Fargo Alarms, as saving the alarm owners money.

Farber expressed surprise that the other alarm firms have not protested being virtually put out of business in Pacifica, but — noting that he was one of the businessmen saving money — voted along with the rest of the council in awarding the bid.

Two Booked For Setting Car on Fire

Two persons were arrested by South San Francisco police early Sunday and charged with burning of personal property.

They were John Dean, 18, of 780 Kirkwood Dr., and Lejon Greene, 21, of 56 Santos St., both of San Francisco.

Both were also charged with conspiracy and possession of concealed weapons. One had a billy club, the other a bailing hook, according to police.

Police said that about 1:55 a.m. they received a call from a resident of the 600 block of Third Lane relating that two persons were seen placing a liquid under a car, lighting the liquid and then driving off.

According to the police, the witness had put out the fire and gone in to phone authorities. While he was in his house, the two men returned to the parked vehicle and doused it a second time, and sped off. The witness jotted down their license number, police said.

Officer Dave Haskins stopped the fleeing vehicle at Baden and Spruce, where the arrest was made. Firemen put out the second fire.

The car was registered to South San Franciscan Raymond Cushing.

Police said they are investigating the possibility of some sort of grudge as precipitating the incident.

S.M. College Trustees Approve Pay Increase for District Employes

Over $1 million in salary and fringe benefit increases were approved for employes of the San Mateo Community College District last Wednesday.

Meeting in special session, the district's Board of Trustees granted the raises in a spirit which was in marked contrast to the rancor which characterized last year's negotiations.

The board acted on four separate requests from the chancellor, Glenn Smith.

Three of the proposals were approved unanimously. One of them was not.

Trustee Mrs. Eleanore Nettle abstained from voting on a schedule of increases for district administrators. She said the schedule would set a precedent. She wanted to have the board adopt a one-year-only across-the-board increase for the 37 administrators instead.

However, the four other trustees voted to accept Smith's recommendation which allows for individual increases totalling raises of about 9.1 per cent.

Last year, the administrators received no raises at all.

Inherent in the approval of the administrators' schedule is the notion that Smith and his staff will review and refine administration in the district during this school year.

Smith noted, however, that he could not specifically pledge to make cuts in adminstration. "There are too many factors which we can't foresee right now for me to be able to make a statement like that," he said after the meeting.

The new method of granting increases to administrators is based on individual performance goals.

The schedule adopted yesterday places the local district into the top five ranking among California junior colleges, using figures for 1972-73.

In other salary and fringe benefit actions, the board:

—Approved a 7.3 per cent increase for district teachers, a total increase of over $750,000.

—Approved a 10.3 per cent increase for the classified staff, costing nearly $173,000.

—Approved a 6.7 per cent increase for the buildings, grounds and cafeteria crews, a total hike of almost $68,000.

Funds to cover the $1 million adjustments are already in special reserves in the 1973-74 budget which is scheduled to be approved at next week's meeting of the board.

Millbrae Planners

Hearing Set on 'Archdiocese' Project

A public hearing on plans for houses on the "archdiocese property" in Millbrae 22 acres of grassy slope lined with eucalyptus trees, is scheduled for Aug. 13 before that city's Planning Commission Planners will review a "final" environmental impact report prepared for Cal Properties' proposal to build single-family homes on land once hoped to be bought for the city as "open space."

The commission will also consider a land use permit for the site.

Monday night, planners approved a variance to allow a new single-family home on "Rocky" Lombardi's property off upper Millbrae Avenue.

City staffers were directed to follow construction with special care on such matters as grading, drainage, retaining walls, and access.

Objection had been raised by neighbors, who claimed an environmental impact study was needed, and said the three-home subdivision is affecting the local environment.

Planners noted that a variance is needed only because the building site is more than 125 feet from a city street, and otherwise meets city regulations.

A variance sought for a single-family home at 342 Minorca Way was continued due to changes in plan.

Fire Department aides were requested to survey all the short private streets without names in the city and recommend names for them. Planners made the request after Lombardi requested a name for the entrance to his subdivision, and another man asked for a name for the private drive leading to four homes.

New Commissioner Donald Junkin was named Joseph Galante's alternate member on the Regional Planning Committee.

New Sheriff's Lieutenant Is Selected

Sgt. Grant William Davis, 35, a member of the sheriff's department for nine years, has been promoted to lieutenant, Sheriff John R. McDonald Jr. announced today.

He becomes the department's 14th lieutenant. A new position is being created in which one of tenants will coordinate all train- the department's present lieuing programs, and Davis will replace that man.

A resident of Foster City with his wife, two sons and a daughter, Davis is a native of Nebraska, joined the department on Nov. 20, 1964, and was promoted to sergeant on July 15, 1970.

He has served on patrol duty with the canine unit, and served as a sergeant at the East Palo Alto substation, at the honor camp near La Honda, at the work furlough facility in Redwood City, and two years in the main jail in the Hall of Justice.

Davis has an associate of arts degree in police science from the College of San Mateo, and is now working for a bachelor's degree in psychology at the College of Notre Dame in Belmont.

D.C. Sr. Citizens Housing on Way

After three years of planning, two years of meetings and numerous applications to the federal government for funding, Daly City may soon get its first senior citizens housing complex.

Mrs. Virgil Davis, leader of the Daly City Seniors Citizens' organization, has pushed for the complex for years, insisting that the city's elderly have no facilities and pointing up the need for such apartments.

Starting two years ago the Daly City Council was considering two applications for such housing — one from developers Bernard Hagen and another from Philip B. Wallace.

This week Wallace asked the City Council to extend his use permit and a parking variance for his 36-foot-high, 120-unit housing project for the elderly.

Wallace said previously the U.S. Housing and Urban Development Department had cut off certain funds which resulted in the slowdown of completing his project, however HUD has reinstated much of these funds and he has now obtained approval from that agency.

The council agreed to the extension, but not before some 20 residents, purportedly property and business owners in the area, complained that granting a less-than-required parking space variance would pose a problem for the East Market-Mission neighborhood.

Councilman Bernard Lycett said he was bewildered by the belated opposition to the plan.

He said the matter had been well publicized in recent years and there had been no opposition previously.

City Mgr. David Rowe informed the group's spokesman, Wade Watkins of 253 First Ave., that the use permit and parking variance had been originally granted by the council more than 18 months ago — in January 1972.

But Watkins strongly criticized the city's policy of notifying the public about such developments, declaring that only three people on his street even heard about the development.

Mrs. Davis said she interpreted the vociferous opposition to the project and verbal attack on developer Wallace as an attack on the city's senior citizens. She said the development was long overdue and much needed.

Wallace, as he has done before in public hearings, explained that occupants of his complex, would be in the low-income group, and would not have cars.

The limited parking spaces would more than likely be used by visitors and not by residents, Wallace explained.

Wallace hopes to begin construction within 45-60 days.

State Sues to Close Rest Home

A suit seeking an injunction to close the Coastside Convalescent Hospital in Montara was filed in San Mateo County Superior Court Wednesday by Dr. J. M. Stubblebine, director of the State Department of Health and Welfare.

It is contended in the suit that Luise Lehner is operating the hospital at 1185 Acacia St. in violation of her state license.

The complaint states that Mrs. Lehner, following filing of a number of accusations on numerous violations of statutes regulating nursing homes, stated last September that she was forming a new partnership to permit the hospital to remain in operation with M. A. Bidenbach as general partner.

On that basis, the suit says, the home was permitted to remain in operation, with Miss Lehner to lawfully function only as the director of nursing. However, it is alleged, she is functioning as the general partner, administrator and sole source of control and authority with respect to management and operation of the hospital.

The department has determined, the compaint says, that the new partnership was a "fraudulent scheme" to insure Miss Lehner could continue to operate the hospital.

The suit lists a series of accusations aginst the hospital beginning in December, 1966, including 53 specific instances of the hospital failing to properly administer to patients, administering medicines without lawful orders of physicians, failure to maintain accurate records for patients' monies (although there is no evidence of impropriety or misappropriation of patients' funds), delaying, obstructing, and interferring with an inspection visit by a department of health official on three occasions, failing to arrange for health examinations for hospital employes, failure to prepare a written disaster plan for the hospital, and requiring nurses to record information at the direction of Mrs. Lehner without the recording nurse knowing the facts of her own knowledge.

The suit states that the State Department of Health and Welfare filed an accusation in 1966 against Miss Lehner, that the hospital license was revoked in April, 1967, but that the operation was permitted to continue on three years probation.

Now kids can look it up in their own Funk & Wagnalls.

After 60 years of making encyclopedias for adults, Funk & Wagnalls has learned enough to make one for children.

It's called the Young Students Encyclopedia. And it's designed to do something more than just get them through the next homework assignment—to make them want to learn on their own.

Instead of burdening your children with tons of forgettable detail, it appeals to their native curiosity. The article on Airplanes, for example, illustrates an experiment children can perform at home showing how things fly. There are hundreds of other drawings, games and puzzles that not only teach but provoke, involve and entertain in the process.

In other words, it's an encyclopedia children will actually use. They'll also use it a long time.

It's designed to be simple enough for children just learning to read and comprehensive enough to serve until they're ready for an adult encyclopedia. They can't outgrow it the way they do shoes.

Which brings up another nice point about the Young Students Encyclopedia: it's intended exclusively to help children, but it helps grown-ups too.

First, it doesn't put much of a dent in your budget. Since it's sold direct to you through us, you can buy the complete 20-volume set a volume or two a week for only $1.69 each. And the first volume for the introductory price of a quarter.

Now available in all Safeway Stores in the following counties: Humboldt, Mendocino, Del Norte, Lake, *Solano, Napa, Sonoma, Marin, Contra Costa, Alameda, San Francisco, San Mateo, Santa Clara, Monterey and Santa Cruz.

Coast Agency Rejects Pacifica Project

Fifteen single-family homes, to have been built in the Fairmont section of Pacifica, have been turned down by the Central Coastal Zone Conservation Commission.

A large delegation of Fairmont area residents traveled to Santa Cruz last Monday to protest the proposed homes.

Four of the units, on Beaumont Street, were turned down "without prejudice," meaning that the developer could try again, immediately — once he could deal with problems put by the commission, particularly those of drainage.

The other 11 were rejected outright. Among objections considered by the commission were those of the extreme slope, slides and erosion. These are located closer to the ocean than the other four.

The builder is Hillside Builders Inc.

Approved without question was the Kenneth Conragan office building at Crespi Drive and Robert Road in Pacifica. This is a small office to house real estate dealers, to go up on a corner bordered on two sides by the Ocean View Inn senior citizen housing project.

Three other projects were considered in San Mateo County:

— The commission held over a proposed division of a 1,400-acre tract at Pigeon Point owned by Emma D. Muzzi into 28 parcels after the staff recommended that the project be sent back to the county with the suggestion that it be returned to the commission with 40-acre units which would represent a final division. Otherwise, staff noted, it was a "growth inducing" project.

— Approved a single-family home on 10th Street in Montara to be built by Alton Tomlinson and Henry Jackson.

— Approved four homes of a proposed 24-unit subdivision on Arbor Lane in Moss Beach, with the warning that those homes closer to the cliffside may not be approved since their lots are in danger of erosion.

Nell Norton

Good morning, good cooks.

Our meal planning is made easier by many convenience foods available on the market shelves. Cake mixes, casserole mixes, frozen dinners, it seems each day some new idea for easy cooking appears.

Today I'd like to offer some recipes using a convenience food that's been around a long time and one that adapts itself to many uses. This baking aid is the dry biscuit mix and also the very handy refrigerated biscuits.

This streamlined coffee bread was created by a winner in the Bake-Off. Everything in the coffee bread is prepared, all you have to do is put it together. Biscuits are coated with preserves, folded and placed in a loaf pan to bake into a gooey pull-apart loaf. Serve it warm or cool in only minutes.

PEACH OF A BISCUIT LOAF

3 Tablespoons butter or margarine
½ cup chopped nuts
½ cup (6 oz.) any flavor fruit preserves
1 teaspoon cinnamon
2 cans (8 oz. each) Refrigerated Buttermilk or Country Style Biscuits

GLAZE

½ cup sifted powdered sugar
3 to 4 Tablespoons milk

Grease bottom and sides of 9-by-5-inch loaf pan. In small sauce-pan melt the three tablespoons butter; stir in the half cup each nuts and preserves and one teaspoon cinnamon. Set aside. Separate biscuit dough into 20 biscuits. Coat both sides of biscuits with preserve mixture; fold in half. Place folded side down in prepared pan, forming 4 rows of 5 biscuits each. Spread any remaining preserve mixture over top. Bake at 350 degrees for 35 to 40 minutes until deep golden brown and center is no longer doughy. Cool 5 minutes; remove from pan. Drizzle with glaze. Serve warm or cool by pulling apart biscuit sections.

GLAZE: In a small bowl combine the half cup sugar and enough milk until thin enough to drizzle.

TIP: Reheat, wrapped in foil, at 350 degrees for 10 to 12 minutes until warm.

ORANGE BISCUITS

¾ cup sugar
4 Tablespoons grated orange peel
2 packages Refrigerated Buttermilk Biscuits

Mix the three-fourths cup sugar and four tablespoons grated orange peel. Separate the biscuit-dough into 20 biscuits. Dip each biscuit in to orange-sugar mixture, coating well. Grease a ring mold generously and arrange the biscuits, standing each on its side, in the mold. Bake in 400 degree oven 17 to 20 minutes. Turn out of ring and serve hot.

A quick and easy coffee cake using biscuit mix and jam with a topping of sugar and nuts will complete this offering of biscuit goodies.

Judges Name Fair Art, Photography Winners

Twelve first place winners have been selected from 1500 entries in a dozen categories of art in the twenty-fifth annual Fine Arts, Crafts and Photography ... ed by the Peninsula Art Association for the San Mateo County Fair and Floral Fiesta.

PAA President Lois Kelley said the panel of judges did not select a "judges' choice," or "best of show" this year so that none of the 12 could be considered the single, top winner.

Prizes for the winners and for second and third place awards in the 12 categories will be announced Saturday night during an artists' preview and awards party, said Mrs. Kelley. The awards total nearly $8,000, she said.

ART JUDGES Ralph DuCasse, Marjory Close and George Neubert review a painting held by Jean Francisco at the San Mateo County Fair and Floral Fiesta, which opened Monday at the county fairgrounds in San Mateo and which runs through August 11.

The dozens of entries selected by the judges for showing, will by on display during the Fair in the west foyer, fine arts room and garden restaurant of the Hall of Flowers.

Dozens of photographs entered in the newly reorganized "Photofiesta" by amateur camera enthusiasts will be displayed in the east foyer.

Pacifica Enlarges New Major Park Plan

Development of a major city park in the southeast corner of Pacifica was given the green light at Monday night's meeting of the City Council.

Bids will be opened August 16, for the $140,000 development of the 34-acre Frontierland Park, upon the site of a former garbage dump.

Councilmen had previously approved a Phase I development of the park, but this week enlarged the project by incorporating Phase II of the Frontierland master plan, so as to "enhance contract bidding."

"There were no takers on the smaller bids," City Manager David Thompson told councilmen.

Pacifica has received approval for a $78,150 grant from the Department of Housing and Urban Development, Thompson reported. The city will match these funds with $28,000 from park dedication fees — collected with building permits — and the remainder from the Frontierland Park fund, collected from garbage company fees.

Lone protester on the council was Stan Farber. He elicited the information from Thompson that the park would require addition of another employe in the parks department, at a possible cost of about $15,000.

"How are you going to pay for him?" Farber demanded to know. "We had to give minimum raises to city employes." Farber continued, stating that many economies had to be imposed this year.

"We worked for this park for many years," Mayor Aubrey Lumley replied. "If we want something bad enough, we'll find the money to pay for it."

The development was approved 3-1.

PMA Urges Swift Action On Countywide Transit Unit

The Peninsula Manufacturers Association has urged the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors to take "immediate action" in establishing a countywide transit authority.

In a letter to board Chairman Robert St. Clair, PMA called attention to recent announcements of the Environmental Protection Agency and the Metropolitan Transportation Commission of proposed restrictions on the use of private cars in the Bay Area.

The letter, signed by PMA's executive director, Bill Hern, also noted that Santa Clara County is making "excellent progress" in developing a county-wide bus project, and that San Mateo County is the only one in the Bay Area lacking such a system.

Hern also pointed out the availability of state and federal monies for the funding of a county-wide bus system that will revert to other agencies if not used.

In a second resolution, PMA urged Gov. Ronald Reagan to designate the Bay Area Sewage Service Agency as the area-wide waste treatment and planning agency for the Bay Area.

Louanne Heath

This past February one of Daly City's most dedicated groups celebrated its seventeenth birthday by pledging to provide $7,500 for the development of a community cultural room in the soon to be built library in the Gellert Park area of Serramonte. It was a lovely birthday present to the community, a delightful way of letting everyone have a share of the birthday joy.

SHARING the joy of reading and letting someone in on the open secret that a library can be a vibrant center of the community is all part and parcel of the motivation for the Daly City Friends of the Library, the group under study today.

According to the club by-laws the goals are "To foster closer relations between the Daly City Library and the citizens of Daly City and environs; to promote knowledge of the functions, resources, services and needs of the library; to participate in the development of a program for the extension and improvement of the library services and resources, and to aid in the provision of adequate housing and other facilities for the Daly City library and its branches."

Impressive sounding words don't always indicate impressive action but, in the case of the Friends of the Daly City Library, the deeds have far exceeded anything the organizers might have envisioned and the reason has been that the leadership of the unit has been consistent in searching for ways to enlarge upon the role it could play.

SEVENTEEN YEARS AGO Daly City was beginning to burgeon when Mrs. Grace Wood invited the people who were to form the nucleus of the Friends of the Library to meet in her home to discuss their mutual concern for the Daly City library. The population was showing signs of rapid increase and there was only one library with a total of approximately 13,000 volumes, many of those on loan from the county.

Today Daly City can boast about its awareness of the need f9r libraries and about the community involvement that is propelling our system closer and closer to the American Library Association's standards in correlation to the number of books in relation to population. In 1971 the city totalled over 70,000 books. The Westlake Library houses 60,000 volumes and the remaining 10,000 are divided between the smaller John D. Daly and Bayshore libraries. Once the Serramonte branch opens the system will have a great many more books.

THE ROLE the Friends of the Library have played in this expasion has been varied and the types of contributions to the system have been suited to the circumstances in which the libraries found themselves. For example, this past year the group purchased an octangular children's table with matching chairs for the expanded Bayshore library and donated stacks to the Westlake branch for its new young adult section. The unit donates books and records to the library and encourages memoriam gifts for this purpose.

The building fund drive, connected with the Friends' efforts on behalf of the cultural Room at the Serramonte branch, was inaugurated at a champagne reception and introduction of a new collection of Spanish language books and records, to be housed at the John Daly branch was made this year. In addition to the special events the members have continued with the popular book fairs, a two day event in May and a one day fair in September and have begun participating in the Spring Fiesta at Serramonte Shopping Center.

There have been sales of individually designed and hand crafted book marks, special exhibits of library books such as the one put on in conjunction with the Daly City Garden Club's Flower Show. Members are involved in the continuing task of sorting and pricing books, sheet music and records that are donated for sale at the fairs.

MANY members of the Friends of the Library, the roster reveals 150 names, join mainly to support the library and to enjoy the book reviews held about six times annually. The day time book reviews, opne to the public, are preceded by a coffee hour followed by a no-host luncheon honoring the guest speaker. General meetings are the fourth Thursday of each month, September through May. Anyone interested in affiliating with the local unit may select one of four types of memberships, individual, family, firm or organizational or patron. Applications for membership are available at all meetings of the group or may be obtained by writing to Friends of the Library, 275 Southgate Avenue, Daly City, and marking it attention Mrs. William Bagnall, membership chairman.

Serving on the executive board for the coming year are Mrs. Emmett B. Tiernes, president; Mrs. John E. Connolly, vice president; Mrs. Albert Teglia, recording secretary; Mrs. Michael Daw, corresponding secretary; Mrs. F. Lincoln Walter, treasurer; Mrs. Anthony Barichievich, Mrs. James Hough, Mrs. Thomas Donahue and Mrs. Frank Greenwood, directors; Mrs. Thomas Jovick, parliamentarian; and committee chairmen, Mrs. Bagnall, Mrs. Alvin Schwarzbach, Mrs. Elveran Sunnell, Mrs. Miriam Ericson, Mrs. Richard Bowell, Mrs. Monte Hills, Mrs. U. R. Kendress, Ed Cavallini and Mrs. K. D. Tschorsnig. All officers and chairmen are eager and willing to discuss the group with any prospective members.

THE KENNETH GREENS (Martha McCombs)

Burlingame is the first address for Mr. and Mrs. David Edwin Silva (Sheryl Lynn Pistone) who exchanged vows at the First Lutheran Church in South San Francisco. The newlyweds honeymooned in Carmel. Green, McCombs Nuptials in SSF

At home in South San Francisco are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Dale Green (Martha Iona McCombs) who have delayed their Disneyland honeymoon trip until later this year.

The Church of God in South San Francisco was the setting for the couple's wedding which was followed by a reception at the Holiday Inn in South San Francisco.

The new matron is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marion C. McCombs of Lovilia, Iowa. She was graduated from Albia Community High School in Albia Iowa.

Kenneth is an alumnus of Redondo Union High School in Redondo Beach. His parents are Mrs. Louise Harriman Green of Oceano and the late Hilding Reynold Green.

When Martha walked to the altar with her father, she was dressed in a white satin A-line gown covered with white lace. Her sole attendant was her sister, Tina Jane McCombs of Lovilia. Her costume was a light blue polyester with brocade sleeves.

Best man duties were performed by Richard Ferro of Redwood City. Andrew Mootheart and Tim McQuade of South San Francisco seated guests.

The bride belongs to the Women's Army Corps stationed at the San Francisco Presidio. Her husband is affiliated with the California State Fireman's Association, and is a reserve fireman for South San Francisco Fire Department. He also belongs to the Fraternal Order of Eagles in Redondo Beach.

'Pigeon Drop' Bilks Woman of $4,000

The old "pigeon drop" is working again in the North County and again it is claiming elderly victims.

Police said the latest person to fall prey to the scheme is a 67-year-old South San Francisco woman who reportedly lost some $4,000 to a pair of young girls — one white and the other black.

It appears the team has worked successfully in the Daly City area for the past several months, claiming at least four victims.

Alice Hugo, of Tryone Court, South San Francisco told police Thursday she had been confronted by the pair while shopping at Serramonte Center.

It was the usual routine the pair used.

While one friendly young woman engaged their "pigeon" in conversation the accomplice excitedly rushes up, tells of finding a large amount of money and if the victim puts up some "good faith" money she can have a share, once it is determined if the findings are free and clear.

Restoration of Tax Windfall Permits Branch Libraries Services at County

Concurring with the recommendation of County Mgr. M. D. Tarshes, the Board of Supervisors agreed last Tuesday to authorize the immediate restoration of previously curtailed hours for county libraries.

The action means that Friday night services again will be restored at Belmont, Millbrae, Pacifica and San Carlos branch libraries, with an additional eight hours per week reinstituted at other branches where services had been curtailed.

Tarshes recommended the action, reporting that higher than anticipated assessed valuation would permit the allocation of sufficient funds to carry on the level of library service which had been temporarily curtailed because of restrictions imposed by the no-tax hike rule of Senate Bill 90.

The county manager reported that the present library tax rate of 21.1 cents per $100 of assessed valuation will bring in some $46,000 more than anticipated because the assessed valuation increase for areas included in the library taxing area was 8 per cent, rather than the 6 per cent originally anticipated.

To maintain the previous hours of the library will cost an additional $16,200 a year, he said. A recommendation as to how to allocate the $30,000 balance of the total anticipated under the higher assessed valuation will be forthcoming, possibly in the form of a lowered tax rate, Tarshes stated.

County Librarian Virginia Ross reported to the board that the recently imposed restriction of library hours had resulted in a 16 per cent drop in library use during the early weeks of July.

In another county library matter, the board accepted a recommendation of Tarshes that a committee be appointed to rate sites for proposed branch libraries.

The first application will be in Pacifica, which has been seeking a branch library for the southern portion of the city, preferring a location at the Sanchez Adobe, a county historical landmark, but a location opposed by the County Parks and Recreation Commission.

The city has subsequently agreed to formation of a committee of representatives of the county and the community to evaluate a number of sites and submit its recommendation to the Board of Supervisors. Miss Ross would head the committee.

Such a procedure would be followed in selection of other branch library sites when the occasion demands.

S.F. Airport Patrol Procedures Detailed

The San Francisco International Airport is within San Mateo County, and the county's sheriff office will continue to be the police agency enforcing laws for the facility, Sheriff John R. McDonald Jr. emphasized last Wednesday.

McDonald said he has asked the district attorney's office to make a study on the legality of the airport police department, whose members have only limited police power to enforce traffic laws and to issue parking citations.

"There is a question in my mind," McDonald asserted, "on whether you can appoint a police officer with limited powers. Either you are a police officer or you are not. There is nothing in between."

Deputy District Attorney James Foley is currently making a legal investigation.

McDonald had no comment this morning on Senate Bill 59, which would give members of the airport police "peace officer" status through deputization.

"It is not just a matter of rules and regulations," McDonald said. "We are re-evaluating the whole procedure of the airport operations."

He said, however, it is up to the airport to provide security, and the responsibility of the deputy sheriffs is to enforce the laws.

McDonald cited the number of private security patrol firms who have guards stationed at the airport, and said there was no difficulty nor conflict in the division of duties between federal officers such as customs officials and local deputies.

NCDA Sets Motorcade

After leaving Serramonte the caravan will travel to Tanforan Shopping Center in San Bruno, then to Millbrae Square and end at Burlingame Plaza. Stops will be made at all locations to provide time for the legislators to meet their constituents.

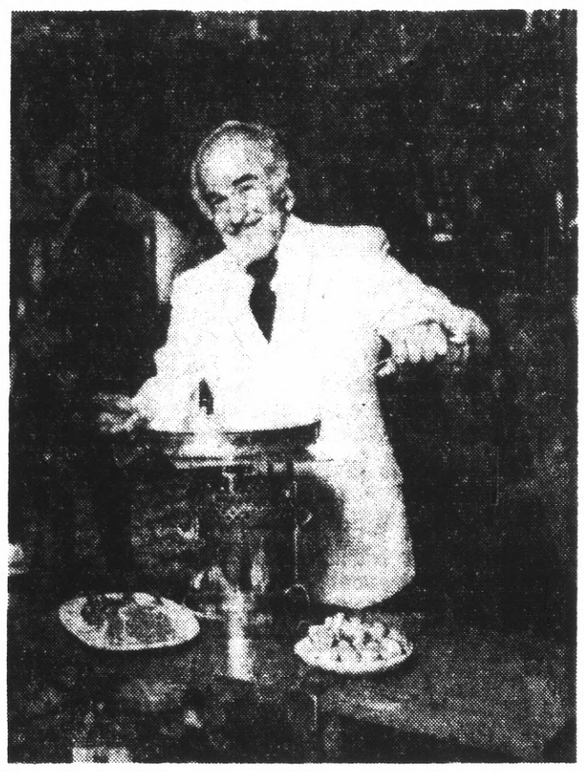
BRIGHT LIGHTS BY LLOYD ★ JOHNSON

Scotty Campbell's Attracts Theatre Crowds

Taking in the Circle Star Theater shows? A sophisticated place to dine before curtain time is Scotty Campbell's in Redwood City. Soft lights, dark woods, and a fireplace lend hospitable warmth to the restaurant's interior, and the booths and tables are cozily arranged. The menu is impressive, with entrees determining the dinner's cost. A tossed salad of crisp lettuce, with a choice of dressing, plus a basket of oven-hot French bread, gets the meal off to a savory start . . . Pizzas come in all varieties and sizes at Romano's Italian restaurant at Rockaway Beach, Pacifica. But owner Enrico Romano makes certain they all share one thing in common: Outstanding flavor. Whether you order the small, medium or large, you can be sure of unbeatable quality . . . Gourmet dinners are served at the Iron Horse, located on San Francisco's famous Maiden Lane, for those on their way to the Curran and Geary Theaters, with walking distance to the shows. Luncheons are also available for the busy shopper or the hurried businessman. If you're planning a special party, you're sure to enjoy an evening of excellent dining in their fine banquet rooms.



MEET THE MASTER — Debonair Phil Lehr is shown here preparing one of his steak creations. The Steakery is one of San Francisco's dining-out musts. Elegant atmosphere, with food and beverages to match.

Davey's Locker Now Shadows Banquet Room

Due to the demand for more banquet and meeting facilities, Dave Rasmussen of the Shadows of San Mateo decided to convert the adjacent Davey's Locker area into a room for conferences, group luncheons, special dinners, etc. After a few weeks of changing this and that, the genial restaurant owner and his staff are now taking reservations for your special functions in this area. This, plus their magnificent Banque Room, gives the Shadows' patrons an excellent choice of facility for any type of occasion . . . Every night is like Saturday night at Vince's Italian and Seafood restaurant, and you can look for even bigger crowds when the San Mateo County Fair and racing at Bay Meadows takes place (July 30 through August 11). Luncheon Specials, served Monday through Friday (11 a.m. to 2 p.m.), include choice of clam chowder or minestrone soup, or luncheon salad, and coffee. A la carte suggestions are numerous. Yes, Vince's puts up orders to go. For fresh seafood for your home table, visit the Fish Depot next door . . . If you're entertaining out-of-towners and are undecided where to take them for a Sunday brunch, set your sights on the unique Omelette House. Sixty-nine different omelettes are available on the menu, plus many other breakfast-type items. The outdoor patio is also an ideal place to spend part of a lazy Sunday.

Mexican-American Food For Deejay's Club

Although Pop-A-Groove continues to be a club attraction at Deejay's, the latest news is that Deejay's has expanded to a full-scale restaurant operation. Now under new management, this Belmont club is featuring lunches daily, Mondays through Fridays, and dinners six nights a week. The menu is Mexican food — and you're invited to create your own combinations. They can also accommodate private banquets (up to 75 persons) in their party facilities. For orders to go, call 592-8117 . . . Steaks are a specialty on the new Gold Coast Room dinner menu at Holiday Inn, Belmont. A special favorite is the Sierra Leone (tender filet mignon). If fish is your preference, try the Marine World Platter . . . The Platter, John Tallerico's new restaurant in the Shoreview Shopping Center, has caught on like sage brush in a fire with those on a limited dine-out budget. Steak and Lobster and Prime Rib are just two of several menu favorites here. Whatever you do, try the Sunday Champagne Brunch. The fare is good — the price is right.

Burlingame Saluto's Popular Site

Fifteen minutes from the financial district, Saluto's in Burlingame is a top Peninsula luncheon spot in which to discuss business affairs over outstanding cuisine . . . They have native French appreciation of good food and its imaginative presentation at the LeParisien restaurant in Burlingame. Among the entrees, gourmets swear by the Supreme de Capon Armagnac (breast of capon marinated and served with armagnac sauce) and Canard a l'Orange (duckling with orange sauce). For the perfect complement to the masterful French cuisine, both European and California wines are available for your choosing. If you're celebrating soemthing special, banquet rooms are available for private functions. And special arrangements are made for luncheon affairs, too . . . For a full evening of entertainment, take your appetite to the Villa Coffee House (there's a new menu here), and your dancing slippers and thirst to the Villa Lounge (the music is by Charlie Blackwell's Trio and the drinks are prepared by skilled bartenders). All this action takes place within the Villa Hotel, a popular center for vacationing out-of-towners, and a congregating spot for Bay Areans.

Groves, Women's Stars Triumph

ROOKIE LEAGUE — Ernie Groves got back on the winning track as they picked up number ten and clinched first place in the Rookie Softball League sponsored by the Pacifica Parks, Beaches and Recreation Department.

Curt Stellingwerf and Jim Johnson got two hits apiece in Grove's 7-6 victory over Jokers Wild. Groves played solid defense to win the ball game. Jokers Wild wasn't so solid on defense, but at bat Mike Anda got three hits and Pat Lehr a triple.

PACIFICA AUTO DISMANTLERS 13-2. Shortstop Kevin Roberts drilled a home run and headed a triple play from Roberts to Steve Rubie at second to Frank Decosta at first as the Dismantlers rosel the Ball Bangers. Dave Vickers had three singles for the Dismantlers while Wayne Achziger was the only man to get two hits for the Ball Bangers.

THE ROVERS, 15-10 — The Rovers used back to back homeruns by Bob Kraft and Don Hinkel to upset the Freaks. Mike Kenny's three-run homer in the fourth inning provided the only bright spot in the Freaks lineup.

OLD PRO LEAGUE — WESTLAKE LOUNGE, 15-15 — The Westlake Lounge moved into fourth place in the Old Pro Softball League to highlight the eleventh week of action. The Lounge used a balance attack and a strong defense as they walloped Campbell's Reality 15-5.

CAPPS CORNER, 25-24 — In the "battle of pitchers," Capps Corner used eight players to edge Campbell Realty.

COUNTRY CLUB, 10-5 — Pitcher Gary Labelle held Ski and Dive to five hits and contributed two timely hits for Country Club with four hits. Doug Newberg got a double and single for Ski and Dive.

SUN VALLEY, 19-6 — Sun Valley Dairy picked up victory number 11, as they whipped the Country Club Gang. Dave Labelle pounded out four hits in the victory for the Mil's club. Mike Rawlings rapped out a home run and a double to pace the Gang.

A&W, 20-4 — In the battle of the cellar Dan Nolan ripped a homerun while Phil Fair, Al Charney, Frank McGrath, Bob Intochichi and Tony Rivallec had three hits each to crush Dolphin Real Estate. Ed Lecount was the only Dolphin to get two hits.

SKI AND DIVE, 16-2 — Ski and Dive pounded out 23 hits in overtaking Westlake lounge. Rich McRichie led Ski and Dive with four hits but Dave Garrittson, Gordy Conterris and Wally Crawford were close behind with three hits apiece. Wally Crawford also showed fine wheels on the basebaths.

LADIES ALL-STARS, 9-5 — Lola Diaz rapped out three hits and teammate Linda Wyatt belted a three-run homer but it was not enough as the Ladies League All-Stars whipped the league champs Ski and Dive 9-5. The All-Stars were led by Betty Taylor (McCombs); Fran Maes (Hefner's); Winnie Horney (Dealer Wheelers); Ann Mandel (Hefners); and Sheryl Peterson (Dealer Wheelers) all with three hits apiece in the victory.

Milio's Leads A Loop; 3 Top B's

In Daly City adult slow pitch league action last week, sponsored by the Daly City Recreation Division, Milio's Misfits defeated Tippy's 11-5 and held on to their half game lead over the Skyline Plaza Jug Shop.

The Jug Shop shocked P.T. and T. 25-6 behind the relief pitching of "Sparkie" Attabit and two booming homers off the bats of Don Carter and Joel Carrara.

Mike Smyth planted the seed of victory for the Castle Street Nursery as he hit an early homer to give Ralph Olcese the lead that he needed as he hurled them ao a 5-0 win over the Good Time Boys. Dennis Diricco and Dan Inciono played flawless defense for the Nursery men.

Jim Doherty and Sam Guerele both hit homers for the Misfits as they rolled over Rolland Soul City 12-3. Flower-Rite with an excellent team defense backed up the fine pitching of Dave Rasmussen to post a 3-2 win over a strong Master Batter Team.

Thunder struck for the third consecutive week as they sealed up a 7-5 win over CANCO. Steve Felt hit two homers, Mike Smyth hit a three-run homer and Steve Goldberg played excellent defense to ignite the Thunder team.

The Glen Club claimed its first victory as Erwin Bermudez pitched a good game and Paul Breining, Will Benumbez, Tim Shafer and Bob Behmer got timely hits for the Glen Club. The S.F. Security Traders tried to come back but the Glen Club held on to their lead to claim the 14-3 victory.

DC Basketball Playoffs Tonight

With only one week of league play remaining before the playoffs the Beavers upset favored OLM 46-44 in Daly City high school cage action at the Westmoor gym last Wednesday. Kirk Dove's 26 led the way for the Beaver victory. OLM had the ball at half court with three seconds to play but a desperation shot fell short. Wlmer Love topped the OLM scoring with 21.

In further action, Sleezes dominated the winless Superstars 44-38. Brian McEvoy and Bob Hurley scored 16 and 14 to lead the offensive effort for the Sleezemen. Dennis MCarthy topped the Stars scoring with 13.

A balanced scoring attack launched by the Celtics proved too much for the Gunners, champs of the winter league, as they dropped their second straight contest 51-42. Bob Ocon, Dave Navvarez and Darryl Victoria combined for 40 big ones (15, 13 and 12 respectively) to lead the Celtics' attack. Gunner Al Tartis led all scorers with 22.

The league playoffs which start tonight, will feature championship and consolation tournaments. Each team will be seeded according to league standings with winners in the first round advancing to the championship tourney and losers playing for the consolation title.

Politics

FLASHY FLASH — The person having the inside track on that appointment to the Jefferson Elementary School District Personnel Commission is (hand me the envelope, please) Jack Jones. Not the Jack Jones now appearing at the Fairmont in San Francisco, rather Jack Jones, the economist for Standard Oil of California. The panel now consists of Al Modena and Mrs. Jeanne Kennaugh.

MRS. KENNAUGH was shifted over to fill the resigned commissioner, Thomas Noonan's, post. Noonan was the state's appointment, Mrs. Kennaugh is the schol board's appointment and Modena is selected by the other two. Now, if you've been able to follow me up to this point, here is what recently transpired before the "old" school board was replaced by the "new" school board:

LAME DUCK Chairman Albert Collett, Trustees Edward Tomasello and James Cranna voted to fill Noonan's seat with Mrs. Kennaugh, probably because school board trustees Mrs. Dorothy Adams and Mrs. Beverly Forrester had said they wanted to "reappraise" Mrs. Kennaugh's appointment when her term came up for renewal in December.

THE NAME of the game is "politics." Mrs. Kennaugh made an unsuccessful bid for election to the school board, hoping (in our opinion) to beat out Mrs. Adams. Instead, Collett was ousted and Adams, Cranna and David Parker won seats. Now power of the board has shifted to the other side, as witnessed by some of the actions being taken nowadays.

LAST NOTE ON JESD — Mrs. Betty Comisky, the classified employee terminated because some folks felt her heart wasn't holding up and she took too much sick leave, will be rehired (mark these words).

HOW DO YA get a job with the federal government? Those people down in LA got the day off when smog blanketed the city. On the same day the Bay Area was hit by a smog alert. Think this poor guy got the day off (choke, gasp, wheeze)? Not on your life! But, then we have a much higher class of smog in the Bay Area.

HERE'S WHY IDA SPADARELLA, of the Toto's Pizzeria Spadarella's, thinks new San Mateo County Sheriff John R. McDonald Jr. is a great public servant. There she was, stranded by the roadside near the Emerald Hills Golf Club with a dead battery, when along came Sheriff McDonald to the rescue. Without batting an eyelash he checked and quickly determined that the battery indeed was dead. With complete disregard for his own personal safety, and at the risk of killing his own battery, he got Mrs. Spadarella's car started. "He's got my vote," says the pretty pizza queen.

JULY 27 CAME AND WENT without a mumble. I saw a tiny blurb in one of the news sheets, but nothing notable. That was a memorable day for this reporter, it meant the end of a long and very unpopular war — a "Police Action," President Truman called it. It was the day that culminated almost two years of verbiage on both sides of the firing line in Korea. It was the day millions of guys had waited for, fought for, were happy to see. Like a lot of guys — six million American GIs, plus soldiers from 16 other nations — we were under the impression that July 27, 1953 meant freedom for the citizens of South Korea. Much to this reporter's chagrin that isn't quite true we now learn. Being free means being able to go where one desires, provided your host extends an invite.

BEFORE THIS STORY becomes more muddled, perhaps it would be better to illustrate what we are trying to say. For reasons of protecting innocent persons from the embarassment of publicity, I will not use names. The case in point revolves around a blind Korean woman who resides in the North County — Cong. Leo Ryan's constituency to be exact. Her parents are dead. Last year her brother died.

She has two other sisters she has not visited for 10 years. She came to this country to attend college, which she did, completing her bachelor of law degree and her master of arts degree. She reads four languages in braille, talks four languages and meets all her household obligations including cooking. Her husband is an American citizen.

SHE IS NOT AN AMERICAN citizen and as a consequence the Korean Government has informed her sister in Seoul that although her sister here may be desirous of visiting with her, (and Congressman Ryan, after diligently working on the case for months, has gained assurances the U.S. would welcome the sister for a visit) the Korean government dashed hopes by saying, the blind woman related, "They didn't think my wanting to see my sister for a visit is reason enough."

THE BLIND WOMAN, whose husband is a very substantial member of the community is afraid to fly. Travel unnerves her, it was learned by this column. What bothers us is what possible fears can anyone have over a 23-year-old Korean girl and a blind housewife?

Happy 20th ceasefire anniversary.

The Post gives its columnists a great deal of latitude, offering its readers the benefit of knowledgeable, varying opinion. Their opinions are not necessarily those of The Post which addresses itself to its readers only through clearly marked editorials.

We Shun The Halt And Lame

By JOHN HORGAN

Summer is for children.

Released from the burden of the books, the current three-month period ought to be a time of joy for 3very kid.

But some are not so lucky.

On a warm efternoon recently, the scene around the huge U.S. Medical Center in San Francisco was a typical one.

Doctors, nurses, technicians, patients, visitors and the like all strode from one building to another and down the avenue which separates them.

Over on the shady side of the street, people wending their way along the sidewalk were making it a point to avoid making contact with one particular youngster.

Jerking and staggering, the young fellow was trying to negotiate a path with two other individuals who may have been his parents.

Obviously, the youngster was a victim of a nerve and muscle ailment.

It was a pathetic sight.

Here was the trio, with the boy in the middle, lurching along while folks coming at them from the west were doing their best to avert their eyes and to stay clear of them.

It seemed as if the people near the trio actually sped up just a little to get by them quicker.

You would have thought the youngster was some sort of leper.

The scene brought back thoughts about a letter which appeared in the column of a syndicated writer.

In the letter, which was signed by "Heartbroken Parents," a complaint is described. It seems that the parents' 28-year-old daughter was about to marry a man said to be possessed of "Beautiful attitudes, brilliant mind and outstanding character."

But the problem, for these parents, was that the young fellow was an amputee.

"We are heartsick," they wrote. "She's such a beautiful girl and could easily get a whole man. How do parents adjust to knowing their daughter will spend the rest of her life caring for an invalid?"

You can only read notes like this one with sadness.

Surely, it is human nature to avoid the unpleasant and the sad. Yet, somehow, there in front of the hospital, you might expect a degree of tolerance from people who come in contact with similar cases every week.

Throughout much of the New Testament, there are references to Jesus' handling of the afflicted and the unfortunate.

Christ actually went out of his way to minister to the lame, the halt and the deformed.

The scriptures tell and re-tell stories of how Christ sought out those who were in some manner less than their peers.

Physical oddities and ailments were His meat. The leper was no different than any other person as far as the ministry of Jesus was concerned.

Certainly, Christ was trying to set an example with that attitude.

But it is an example that is extremely hard to emulate. Embracing the odd or the out-of-the-ordinary remains a most arduous task for most of us.

This is especially disheartening when the case in point involves a child.

There on that U.C. sidewalk, it ought to be pointed out that the youth in question smiled at all of those around him — even those who rather studiously tried to avoid him.

Reform of Elections Under Consideration

Wealth and power. These have always been close allies, but only on a few occasions has the quid pro quo been highly visible and direct. During most of history economic strength has exerted its will in subtle ways, and only on rare occasions has the power of money to buy influence been starkly visible.

Memorable occasions include the sale at auction of the office of Emperor by the Praetorian Guard during the decline of the Roman Empire. The Medicis did not hesitate to call, and then to extend loans as a means of handling rivals both within and without Florence. American history records the organized purchase of votes in the late 19th and early 20th centuries. Another such practice has evolved in modern America in the form of the runaway cycle of money, media, images and power.

It is not surprising, therefore, that systemic reform is being presently considered on national, state, and local levels. Thoughtful citizens and good government organizations have long advocated change. These have now been joined by political men whose careers have developed through campaign funds and their personal adroitness in adapting to the system.

True reform, however, will be hard to come by. For one thing, many public men are willing to talk change, but will be loath to vote out a way of life at which they have been successful. The loophole machines are already in operation, and rhetoric and adopted legislation may bear little relationship to one another.

The politics of campaign finance will be difficult to separate from the politics of incumbency. Incumbents already possess great leverage. The prerogatives of office including franking privileges, and longevity in the public eye favor the office holder against newcomers. Limitation of expenditures tends to magnify these advantages and further entrench the office-holding elite.

Some political applications of funds, moreover, could be beyond reach of reformers. The size and number of gifts can be limited. Amounts that can be expended can be restricted. Subsidies can be provided either in cash or services (e.g. free TV time). But what about the man of means who, for good or bad motives wants to place his own advertisements, telling the world that he believes strongly in a position taken by a particular candidate? Can such advertising be stopped, or is it to be considered as an exercise of free speech?

Finally, the imperatives of reform must be combined with the need of continued flow of information to the public. Because of almost universal apathy about matters political, the senses of the public must be bombarded in order to capture a moment's attention on important public matters. It is the cost of this assault that has enshrined money as more important than quality or ideas in the political arena.

Some reforms being considered presently would so reduce the ability of candidates to communicate that new evils could rise to replace the old. For the American people know woefully little about the men who manage their affairs. They stir a bit for top of the ticket races (president and governor) and even give a desultory glance at U.S. Senatorial contests. Most Americans, however, know nothing, not even the names, of the men who hold office as congressmen, state legislators, or local officials.

Care will be required, therefore, to prevent campaign fund and expenditure limitations from also acting as a limitation of public information and knowledge.

No better project could be undertaken by a public service organization or one of the nation's great foundations than a program to inform and urge the American people to take part in the political process. As we are so subject to advertising techniques whether as a guide to buying soup or how to vote for candidates, it could be that a hard sell of good citizenship might work. Clever ads might just create a favorable image of the involved citizen, and in so doing create an involved citizenry.

Unless there is a substantial change in popular attitudes about politics and government, reform will be difficult. Because of the need for information in a form the people are willing to assimilate, pure limitation either of gifts or expenditures, will not provide a full and satisfactory answer. Some kind of subsidy will also be required. Those who complain about the suggested use of tax dollars for purposes like free television should realize that such needed expenditures are only a small part of the price we must pay to compensate for sloth and indifference.

Good Show

In producing "The Boy Friend," the problem facing Ron Wells and the summer players was to make Daly City's home town kids sound like English children in a French school. We think they did a pretty fair job of it.

IF RON WELLS doesn't end up in Hollywood or on Broadway or at least as a drama teacher, he'll miss his calling. Before him may be years of apprenticeship in perfecting his craft and of harsh discipline in seeking recognition in the cold world of the arts, but he has the talent that can carry him to the high regions of dramatic art. Although only a college junior, he is in his fourth year of writing, rewriting, producing and directing plays for the Daly city Recreation Department.

In "The Boy Friend," Ron was assisted by his brother, Jim, and other old standbys. Carl Kostolefsky was back as Percival Browne, Cyndy Spitzer as Madame Dubonnet, Carmel Lundstrom as Dulcie and Bill Schuler as Alphonse. Last week they and other veteran of the summer theater fluttered their way across the stage for an evening of fun.

As Maisie, Ruth Cotter stole the show with her singing and her dancing. As a flapper of the 1920's she captured the charm of the innocent period.

BRENDA THOMPSON seemed a trifle old for the role of a teenager, but she smiled and sang with all her heart and the audience clapped for approval. Playing Tony to Ms. Thompson's Polly, Brian Devine was among the best of the male actors.

Like them, the other members of the cast and of the orchestra did their whole-hearted best.

NOW they must get ready for an August 16, 17 and 18 production of "Peter Pan." In this they deserve the support of the people of Daly City. Here are kids who try. With the devotion of long hours they struggle with parts written for the New York stage and with music intended for professionals.

For "Peter Pan," under the direction of the indefatigable Wells, they have created their own script and adapted music to it in an attempt to capture the freshness of James Barrie's story.

"PETER PAN" is "an escape from the monstrous, uncompromising actualities of things," as critic Thomas Moult wrote. It is a story of children that adults should see, for "It gives a vision of life in which men's faults and handicaps have bee lost in a perfectly synthesized whole and made acceptable to adults through the magic of humor and sweetness and simplicity."

Of course it is ambitious for Ron and his gang to do "Peter Pan." But if they can capture half the charm of the original story, they'll have a good show.

Surely the people of Daly City, Colma and the surrounding areas should give them their support. Once again the dates: August 16 and 17 at 8 p.m. and August 18 at 2 p.m. The fare is nominal. Won't you come and see it?

THE MARQUEE

By Barbara Bladen

Karen Morrow, the tough and tragic Nancy who is hopelessly in love with Bill Sikes in the current Civic Light Opera production of "Oliver" is always thought of for Judy Holliday-type roles. After 13 years as a singer, she'd like producers to see her as a straight actress too.

"The role of the Cockney Nancy is as important to act as it is to sing. I believe if you can see yourself in a role, you can play it.

"With therapy, a person's depths can be reached. I think every human being is capable of every emotion. It's only the technique of developing that.

"The best thing about acting is that you can expose yourself to every emotion and if it's a threat to your inner self and peace of mind, you needn't use it in your private life."

This is the second time round for her portrayal of the bawdily pathetic housemother to a den of thieves. She'd played it in summer stock with Sid Caesar as Fagin and Jon Cypher as Sikes. He's recreating that same role again here at the Curran Theater.

She and Caesar are old buddies, dating back to 1963 when she was playing second banana on his rerun of "Show of Shows" for television.

"Sid was appearing on Broadway in the stage musical, "Little Me" and I was memorizing word for word all the old Nanette Fabray and Imogene Coca sketches. We'd tape during the day with Jane and Gordon Connell in the company. I don't know how he did it but he's got a lot of nervous energy."

The big-boned blonde singer is enthusiastic and ebullient. Her infectious smile and charming friendliness captures the attention of everyone in the room, as I noticed during our luncheon interview at the Clift Hotel last week.

Broadway was a womb to her for years as she moved in and out of every musical show of note. But after a series of short, disappointing runs ("Grass Harp" four days, "Selling of the President" four days), where "the congratulatory flowers arrived after the theater had been locked up," she broke out of her pattern and took a crack at television. The result was a two-year stint on the Jim Nabors' series.

"I still think that having a steady job is the greatest thing in the world. It gives you security to discover more things about yourself. This is my second longest run, that's why I'm so happy. 'Oliver' is set for four months. I was with Buddy Hackett in 'I Had a Ball' for six months."

As an added fillip to her high spirits, she's due to star in a musical based on the career of Jean Nidetch, founder of Weight Watchers. Avery Korman is doing the book with music and lyrics by Billy Barnes.

"Yesterday a man asked me if I was Doretta Morrow's daughter. That pleased me because people usually confuse me as being Doretta. She died in England several years ago at age 41."

B League Scores Soar in Daly City

In the B League North sponsored by the Daly City Recreation Division, the Henchmen used the big bat of Bill True to defeat Off the Wall 12-9. True went 4-for-4, with two three-run homers to provide the margin of victory for the Henchmen.

Chalmers All-Stars snuck past the Whispers 8-3 as Grant Steer, Ed Ferrari and Dave Rodriguez each collected two hits.

The Emanons served Steve's Catering a 21-3 setback. Larry Geffen and Rich Monteleone had 3-for-5 and 4-for-4, respectively, to lead the Emanons' attack.

G&C Builders behind Mike Torrise's second consecutive route-going effort defeated the Pomona Casuals 3-1. The Casuals defense hurt them as the Builders did not have an earned run in this game.

Westlake Pizza, behind the shutout pitching of Mike Loughlin, downed the Count Down Nine 4-0.

In the finalgame of the week the Nestle crunchers stopped Broadway Plumbing 11-4.

B LEAGUE EAST — Lujan, Melody Toyota's pitcher, had a two-hitter going until the seventh inning when an error, which should have been out number three, gave Tippy's a new life. After this crucial error, Randy Fitzgerald doubled home the tying and winning runs to give Tippy's a 3-2 win.

Cordero Chevrolet, behind the pitching of Rick Ellis, defeated the French AC 8-3. Rick and Doug Gray sparked the Chevrolet team by going 2-for-3. The Gray-to-Woods-to-Bruno double play combination did well.

The Turf Club solidified its hold on first place by downing Longs Drugs 8-7. Frank Abrams and Pat Tonna each connected for two-run homers for the Turf Club in this see-saw contest where the lead changed hands several times before the club took control.

The World of Carpets tacked down a 13-12 win over the Bayshore Baptist team.

The Hornets stung for the first time this year as they withdrew an 8-4 decision from the IRS. In the final game of this league the B of A Rooks pulled out a 7-2 win over an uncooperative Western Dental team.

Tight Games in Youth Baseball

Many close games highlighted last week in the Daly City Summer Baseball League.

In the fifth grade division the Scots edged the Giants 3-2 in an extra inning. Both teams showed good defense and outstanding pitching.

The Pirates beat PAL 11-3 with big hitting by Eric Shoal and "Choo-Choo" Ryan. "Cookie" Laurio, "Flash" Gingham and "Daisy" Hatter did a fine job for the victorious Pirates on the mound.

In the sixth grade division the Cardinals, behind the fine pitching of Tito Hernandez, Louis Valar and David Dezman, thwarted the hard-hitting Cubs and came away with a 3-0 shutout. Louis Valar carried the big stick for the Cards in the third inning.

In other action the L.B.Y.A Lions took the OLM Hawks 11-8 in a close game. Big hits by Mike Goetch, Joe Tauita and Mike Schneider in the last inning proved to be more than the Hawks could handle and accounted for the Lions' triumph.

Seven games were played in the seventh grade division last week.

The Pal Colts shut out the Litho Liners 5-0 with fine pitching by Brian Jones and Jim Poulos. Jones and Paulos allowed only 2 hits while striking out 11 and giving up no walks.

The Wildcats mauled the Tigers 14-7 on 14 walks by the Tigers while the Carriage House team road over the PAL Eagles 7-4 on pitching by John Durkin and Ray Morton.

In other action the Eagles tamed the Tigers 15-1 while the Carriage House stampeded the PAL Colts 8-1 behind the pitching of Barry Norton and Rob Savory.

It was close through the last inning between the Wildcats and the Litho-Liners but the Wildcats came on strong to come from behind and win 9-2.

The Tigers fell to the Carriage House 27-5 by allowing 24 walks.

Grand National at the Cow Palace Oct. 26

Plans for the 1973 Grand National, biggest and most colorful western show anywhere, have been announced.

The Grand National Rodeo, Horse Show and Livestock Exposition, a tradition at the Cow Palace in Daly City since its opening in 1941, will be October 26 through November 4.

The ten-day show has a "cast" of over 500 rodeo cowboys and cowgirls, more than 1600 hosres ad003 n0-plus livestock animals.

Last rodeo of the regular season, the Grand National draws rodeo contestants from all over the U.S. and Canada to compete for the stakes and championship rankings in saddle bronc riding, bareback riding, bull riding, steer wrestling, team roping, calf roping and the cowgirls' barrel race.

Five-times World Champion All Around Cowboy Larry Mahan will be entered, in quest of a record sixth title. Bob Ragsdale of Chowchilla, who led Mahan in prize money winnings until felled by injury for six weeks this summer, is a Grand National regular. San Francisco's World Champion Bull Rider, Bill Nelson, twice champion Jack Roddy, San Jose, this year's leading rookie, Tom Ferguson, San Martin, and defending Grand National All Around Cowboy Leo Camarillo, Donald, Ore., are a few of the top names expected.

The horse and livestock judging draws exhibitors from 17 states and Canada, many of them from among the West's most prominent families. They will show their finest animals in breed classes that run the full spectrum from the familiar to the exotic.

The historic role of the cowboy and early Western ranch life will be a background theme for the 1973 Brand National. This will be depicted through a collection of historic photographs of the Old West and California pioneer days, with implements and artifacts of the era. There also will be focus on the many different nationalities and ethnic groups who made their own contributions to ranching and livestock raising in the West.

Le Pacini Potpourri

How does it go? The more things change the more they stay the same. Too bad today's athletes aren't like the old-timers, you say; dedicated, eat, sleep, live The Game; would pay the owner for the opportunity to play . . . isn't that right?

NO IT ISN'T, according to author Harold Seymour, who has written what is billed by experts as THE definitive history of the so-called Golden Age of Baseball ("Baseball: the Golden Age, New York, Oxford University Press).

He notes, for example, the Sporting News of 1910 discussing how players do nothing but talk of money on and off the field, and then editorializing how it "fondly recollected a former time when sportsmanship and competition were uppermost."

SEYMOUR goes on to detail how many players in those days were ardent adventurers in the stock market and reminds that John McGraw once called players nothing more than businessmen trying to sell their wares.

And he further reminds that there were holdouts in those days, too and that they, too, were looked upon by owners and fans as traitors and mercenaries; and delves fully into the several player strikes which occurred in those early years.

WORLD OF STATISTICS: The Giants lead the majors in triples. . . . As bad as Giant pitching often has been this year there are four teams in the NL with higher earned run averages (Philadelphia, Atlanta, Pittsburgh, San Diego) . . . Besides all of his more obvious individual stats, Bobby Bonds currently is tied with L.A.'s Joe Ferguson for most game winning hits in the majors. . . . If Nolan Ryan keeps striking 'em out at his current rate, he will flirt with the unheard of K plateau of 400 in one season. . . .

We recently did a column on some of the distortions in designated hitter stats out of the AL, including the fact that the larger numbers of hits and homeruns being hit were producing relatively no extra runs. This was subtly dramatized if you bothered to read the small print in the records of the All-Star game pitching staffs. It showed that while AL pitchers allowed approximately 50 percent more hits than NL pitchers they had the identical aggregate ERA of 2.57.

IT'S A WORN old phrase, but time flies. We recently read the obituary of former major league pitcher Herm Wehmeier, whom we remember as a very promising athlete who became a ten-year man, but who never fullfilled his promise as a pitcher. So the next day we're flipping through the pages of a 1948 Baseball Digest and come across an article about a home-grown Cincinnati prep hero then a rookie with the Reds named Herman Wehmeier. . . .

WHAT A PRO basketball team you make up of former Celtics now coaching in the NBA. At center, Bill Russell; up front, Tommy Heinsohn and Bill Sharman; in the backcourt, Bob Cousy and K.C. Jones.

LITTLE KNOWN FACTS: In 1914, Harry E. Aitken, president of a film company and a rabid Giant fan, persuaded John McGraw to order cameras for spring training to be used as instructional devices.

Lawn tennis was invented by Major Walter C. Wingfield, a British army officer (what else?), who introduced the game at a lawn party in Wales in 1873. The game originally was called "Sphairistike" by Wingfield because he thought it was the name under which it had been played centuries earlier. It developed, though, that that word in Greek was an order "to play," the same as "ten-ez" is an order to play in French.

You may know that Henry Aaron's name is the first to appear alphabetically on the register of current major league players, but do you know whose name appears last? Richie Zisk's does. He's a rookie outfielder for Pittsburgh. Aaron, of course, also appears first on the all-time register, and we KNOW you won't know whose name appears last on that one. Outfielder by the name of Dutch Zwilling, whose career ended in 1916 with the Cubs.

The pitch known as the slider got its name in 1943.

LOCAL NOTES: Pacifica resident Ed Burns, the head football coach at Lowell High, will co-coach the North for the 22nd prep Shrine game in Los Angeles August 12. The angle is that he will be the first former Shrine game player to return as a coach.

Burns played in the 1954 game as a Poly High (San Francisco) grad coming off a season as an All-City quarterback who had thrown for 855 yards while completing 59 percent of his passes. Under now retired coach Milt Axt, Poly, during Ed's tenure won 36 straight games.

Since becoming head man at Lowell in 1966, Burns' Indians have won 50, lost just 12 and won or shared five AAA titles.

THE LATE Frank "Bow Tie" Walsh, our old mentor, has been elected to the Citizens' Savings Collegiate Hall of Fame. Frank, an outstanding athlete at the University of Arizona, later gained international fame as a promoter of amateur basketball. He is perhaps best remembered locally as the man who opened the Cow Palace up to big time collegiate basketball.

BASEBALL BRAIN TEASER OF THE WEEK:

Question: With a runner on second the batter hits to the shortstop, who throws over the first baseman's head into the bleachers. Ground rules allow one base on an overthrow of first or third. The batter continues to second and the runner who had been on second crosses the plate but does not touch it. The catcher calls for a new ball, takes it from the umpire and touches home plate. The umpire calls the runner out. Is this correct?

Answer: No, the new ball must be delivered to the pitcher who must stand in his position on the mound and the umpire must call "Play ball" before a play can be made on the runner for not tagging a base. If this is done, THEN the runner can be put out for failing to touch the plate.

KEN REITZ came back to Candlestick Park recently as a rookie third baseman with the St. Louis Cardinals and is pictured here, at left, getting ready to enter the batting practice cage.

Redbird Rookie Reitz– The Next Ken Boyer?

By SUE McALLISTER

Ken Reitz has developed into a superb defensive third baseman within the St. Louis Cardinal organization. Reitz has fullfilled high expectations, since he is possibly the best rookie third baseman the Cardinals have ever had.

Fortunately, Reitz has matched consistent defense with consistant hitting. It has been said he hits everywhere he plays. Demonstrated by an all-star performance with the Cardinal AA Tulsa club last season. With Tulsa Reitz hit .280 with 15 home runs and 66 runs batted in (RBI's). Then in 21 games with the parent Cardinals Reitz hit .350.

It's hard to believe just a few years ago Candlestick Park groundskeepers would come to work to find a young aspiring Jefferson baseball player named Reitz had hopped the fence just to get the feel of a major league baseball diamond. Then in spring of 1973 he found the gates open and hit his first major league home run in his old practice field at Candlestick (which was a game-winning blast).

As a Jefferson senior Reitz was on the 1969 NPL championship team. His ability was rewarded by being named to the Redwood Tournament of Champions all-star team. Again it was powerful hitting and good defense.

After graduating from Jefferson Ken entered the Cardinal organization. Ken's older brother, Roy, had at one time been part of the San Francisco Giant organization. From then it has been a steady climb for the 22-year-old. Presently, the sport's media are applying superlatives to his future. Possibly Jefferson High School and San Mateo County will be represented in the major league All-Star game in the future.

Wards Joins U.S. Sports Program

Montgomery Ward's Bay Area retail stores have agreed to support and promote the Presidential Sports Awards program, it has been announced today by Capt. James Lovell, chairman of the President's Council on Physical Fitness and Sports and a former astronaut.

"There are 49 million adult Americans who, according to a recent survey, have no program of regular physical exercise. We want to tell them about this program and encourage their participation, and Montgomery Ward's nationwide chain of retail and catalog outlets have agreed to help us," Lovell said.

"We intend to give strong support to this program," said M. L. Loyd, Ward's Bay Area metropolitan district manager.

He said the company also is underwriting the costs of producing a new motion picture about the program which will be available later this summer to television stations and civic and recreational groups.

To qualify for an award, individuals must be 18 years old or over and must complete requirements in one of more than 30 popular sports for which the Council has developed qualifying standards. Copies of these standards and an official "Log Book" in which participants record their own performance are available free in local Ward stores, including the Wards store in the Serramonte Shopping Center in Daly City.

After completing the requirements, which involves at least 50 hours of activity over a four-month period, the participant mails in the log book and $3 and receives in return a certificate, a lapel pin and a colorful emblem.

The Presidential Sports Award was introduced by the council in October, 1973.

Applications for these bowling lessons at no cost can be obtained from any recreation leader at your local playground and must be returned before August 10

Annual Pacifica Tennis Tourney

Deadline for signing up for the tournament will be 5 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 9, at city hall.

Playground Action Hot in Daly City

WOODROW WILSON — Bruce Ayres has come on strong on the ping-pong table as has Timmy Thompkins while Joey Bender still reigns in checkers. Mearwhile, John Cosmos suffered his first defeat in chess at the hands of the recreation leader.

The Woodrow Softball team suffered defeat by Vista Grande 12-4. Woodrow's record now stands at 2-2. The game was tied 4-all through the seventh inning when the Vista Grande bunch began to take advantage of their playground's special ground rules and collected the balance of their 12 runs.

Despite the deceiving score fine performances were turned in for Woodrow by John Cosmos, John, Joe and Tim Bender, John Ayres, Rex Jackson, Harald Hill, Ritchie Kelly, Gary Mecallef, Junior Berrios and Andy Gonzales.

WESTMOOR PARK — The first carrom tournament of the summer had Brian Michelson in first place by defeating Mike Botta. Third place went to Rich Foley and Dietz Balagot took fourth place.

In a softball triple header against Vista Mar, Westmoor Park won two games out of three. In the opening game, Westmoor Park won 7-4 behind the clutch hitting of Marcel Crossland who went four-for-four and played good defense.

Vista Mar finally put it together in the second game as they won 10-7. In the closing game, Westmoor Park held on to win 12-11 with the fine fielding play by Tino Donaire who saved it. Daniel Webster finally broke the hex as they defeated the Park for the first time this year 5-3.

Westmoor players participating in the softball games were Steve Botta, Reggie Bowie, Dietz Balagot, Jack Dorn, Dave Foley, Munch Balagot, Dave Gorter and Dale Kettner.

Player of the week went to Ed Cruz; offense player went to Craig Bloom, defense player went to Dave Ramirez.

ESTLAKE SCHOOL — Westlake School had another non-flame barbecue. Quick to the rescue were Ken Perotti and Kirk Carrillo who gave advice to the inexperienced. Patiently cooking were Susan Sylvester, Nancy Ginesi, Brenda Silverman, Vince Royal and Kirk Carrillo. Following was a dress-up contest in which Brenda Silverman won the award for most original outfit. It was obvious that Brenda devoted some time to her creation.

The girls carooms champ is Laura MacDougall who competed against Tricia Houghton, Nancy Ginesi and Susan Sylvester to obtain her title.

The top strikeout players had a two-man tournament recently. The top two teams played a two out of three tournament. Officiating was Umpire Dave Mackriss. Vince Royal and Kirk Carrillo were faced with competition from Joe Silverthorn and Tim Doberstien. Coming out on top with a 10-1 win and an 8-1 win were Kirk and Vince.

VISTA GRANDE — The "Over the Hill Gang" won its first game of the season by clobbering Woodrow Wilson, 12-4. Jose Ruiz and Tim Tompkins had four hits each while Victor Ruiz, Keith Jacobs, Jim Martire, Arthur Diaz, James Keys and Francisco Ruiz collected two hits each. Nancy Buitrago added three RBI's.

Earlier in the week the "Over the Hill Gang" lost a doubleheader to Marchbanks Park by 10-1 and 16-4. The dual defeat overshadowed the fine over-all play of Mel Walker. Vista Grande's record now stands at 1-4.

Last Friday a carroms tournament was held. Arthur Diaz emerged as the champ, with Andrew Wetherbee second, Dan Martire third and Ken Bates fourth. Other participants included Marcella Wetherbee and Dan Johnson.

Vista Grande's secnd ping-pong tournament will get underway this week. Barbecues are each Thursday at 1 p.m.

PALISADES PARK — Thirty Palisades Park regulars competed in a frisbee throw. Taking first place in the girls' divisions were Debbie Escove and Donna Byrd. The boys' divisions saw Monte Munoz Jeff Daniels, Chris Ostegard, and Tom Adair the victors.

OUR LADY OF MERCY — The winners in the 12 and over category in ping-pong were Bill Cremen, first; Jim Diggins, second; and Mike Stack, third. In the carroms division Alan Modena came in first, Mike Scott, second and Cremen clinched third. In the 11-and-under category Jeff Columbini placed first, Buzzy Locke second, and Joan Nagy, third in ping-pong. In carroms, Dan Diggins placed first, John Naby, second and Jeff Columbini, third.

Telstars Take Jr. Teen Tournament

The Telstars Junior Teen Club battled for a first-round loss to the Imperials and finally overcame the Casualiers in a hard-fought 1-0 playoff victory to claim first place honors in the Daly City Recreation Department annual Junior Teen Co-Rec Softball Tourney at Westlake Park last Saturday.

The four clubs, Telstars from Westmoor, Casualiers from Colma, Imperials from Midway and Castaways from Serramonte played a round-robin schedule throughout the day. The mid-d$y break featured fun away from the diamond with a club tug-o-war and an extra large egg throwing contest.

After the regulation round-robin the Telstars, Casualiers and Imperials were tied with 2-1 records. In a three-inning playoff the Tllstars nudged the Imperials 4-0 to gain the finals against the Casualiers. The hard-fought finale featured fine fielding by boyh squads. The Telstar victory dethroned the Casualiers, 1972 champs.

Championship and second place trophies were awarded to display in their school or meeting place and individual ribbons for first to third were presented. The Imperials copped a closed third while the Castaways, though playing many close games, ended in fourth. The day was topped off by a watermelon feed.

The next Junior Teen Event is the annual barbecue and swimming trip to Turtle Rock Ranch in Walnut Creek August 11. Teens must sign up with their advisors or at the recreation office, 134 Hillsdale Blvd. on or before August 9.

Frisbee Tests Aug. 6-10 In Daly City

Talented young tossers of the frisbee, the popular flying disc, will do their thing as the Fifth Annual National Junior Frisbee Championship begins on all Daly City playgrounds the week of August 6 to 10 for boys and girls through age 15. Playground winners in each division will compete in city-wide toss-offs Friday, August 10 at 1:30 p.m. at Westmoor Park.

Boys and girls will compete initially in two age groups, 11 and under and 12 through 15. Both boys and girls champs in the city-wide contest will be eligible to compete in the Northern California Regional Junior Frisbee finals in Fresno September 29.

Winners of the regional event will earn a $100 U.S. Savings Bond and free trip with parent to the National Championship Finals in Baltimore, Md. in November.

More than one million youngsters throughout the country are expected to compete in this year's event. Competition, sanctioned by the International Frisbee Association, is comprised of an assortment of Frisbee throws including backhand, sidearm, underhand, skip flights and distance flights. Behind-the-back and between-the-legs novelty catches also are scheduled events.

All contestants will be provided with Frisbees to use during during the competition. These are provided at no charge by Wham-O Manufacturing Co., co-sponsors of the event.

Pears, Peaches, Nectarines Fill Markets

Bartlett pears are beginning to make their appearance in the fresh market. Good volumes from the Sacramento River district and Upper Sacramento Valley are on the way.

This year growers are looking at a much larger crop of fresh Bartletts than last year. As far as that goes, the biggest within the past decade! This brings good values and buys to consumers.

The early season pears, now in peak volume, are noted as quite good, however, sizes are not as large as last year's. Because of the heavy fruit set, pears are smaller, but they are just as juicy and succulent as ever.

Harvest in California, which began several weeks ago, should run to September, and supply markets with fresh pears until mid-October. The fact that pears must be stored in "ripening rooms" before going on display at the grocer's explains the availability of pears into October.

From the Sacramento River district to the northern Sacramento Valley to Mendocino County to Lake County, California fresh Bartlett pears will be running in large volumes through the summer, after which winter pears start coming in from the Pacific Northwest.

So beginning this week, pears should be included on the menu, whether eaten as an accompaniment to broiled fish, stuffed with blue cheese, sliced and diced in a salad, or just eaten fresh out of hand.

Peaches, the queen of summer soft fruits, are off and running. This fruit should last through September. The two varieties now on market are Elberta and Suncrest.

The Fay Elberta variety, which should soon reach peak production, is especially good for home canning. Gem peaches are running a little behind schedule, but should be coming to market very soon. This variety is popular for home freezing because it holds color so well when thawed. Also, the texture and soluble solids withstand the freezing process better than some other varieties.

Well into the season now, these multi-purpose freestone peaches should be selected on the basis of creamy yellow skins with no hint of green—and not so much by the blush. Blushes vary with the variety. Look for well-rounded cheeks and a well-defined crease or fold.

Ready-to-eat peaches feel barely soft and have a good peachy fragrance.

A relative of the peach, nectarines from the southern San Joaquin Valley should hit another peak this week. This fruit is expected to last through September.

The mid-season variety, now being harvested, is of particular good quality and in good volume, consequently reasonable prices. Look for nectarines that are firm, plump and well-formed. Slight softening along the seam indicates ripeness.

A new 48-page, four-color cookbooklet emphasizing summer fruits from California is available free from the California Tree Fruit Agreement.

The cookbooklet contains more than 100 dessert, salad and main dish recipes and serving suggestions, as well as varietal and nutritional information and canning and freezing tips.

Food for Life

Nutrition Knowledge Important

By GEORGE M. BRIGGS, Ph.D.
Nutritionist

The American food industry spends approximately $40 per family each year to influence personal food choices.

Advertising plays a major role in the foods we buy. But so do long-time habits, food quality, price and whether we like the appearance or taste of the food.

To some extent our knowledge of the nutritional value of a food also affects our purchases. This explains why many food advertisements use a nutrition message. Lately, for example, I have witnessed nutrition claims in ads for breakfast cereals, bread, milk, low-calorie foods, eggs, cottage cheese, dietary supplements and, last but not least, prunes. Obviously, the advertiser must feel that nutrition sells at least some products.

However, many times nutritional claims about food products are misleading or even false. Some of the breakfast food claims seem quite far-fetched. For example, selling a breakfast cereal containing more than 40 per cent sugar on the basis of complete nutrition is nonsense. Supplying, by enrichment, 100 per cent of the allowance for six or seven of the 45 essential nutrients is like trying to run an eight-cylinder car with only 3 working spark plugs. It is no more a complete car than a few vitamins are a complete food.

Other examples of misleading claims which have come to my attention are in connection with "high protein" crackers, high potency vitamin E capsules, broilers raised "without hormones," certain "organic" and "natural" foods, a dried fruit seven times richer in iron than a fresh fruit (they are not comparable), and a diet-revolution book.

To say that high sugar foods provide one with lots of energy is also misleading. Energy production requires most vitamins, minerals and amino acids. In fact, alcohol and pure fat provide twice as much energy per unit weight than sugar but they arenot generally sold on the basis of the energy capabilities.

Some nutrition knowledge, coupled with common sense, will help you in what to believe. Remember, Madison Avenue advertising techniques are generally designed to move your pocketbook — not provide you with good nutrition. Read the labels, be wary, and ask questions of your physician or a nutritionist. When you hear or see irresponsible advertising, speak up.

Beef Feed Crops Down

Bad winter and spring weather decreased the amount of corn, soybeans and other feed crops that could be harvested from last year's crops and planted for this year's. Because farmers couldn't operate their equipment in the snow, ice or mud, much field work either could not be accomplished or was severely delayed.

Due to the resultant shortages, costs of many livestock feeds have more than doubled, adding to the expense of producing meat animals and making any immediate decrease in the price of meat unlikely.

Meat Quality Is Prime Lure

Meat quality is the most important consideration of food shoppers as a reason for selecting a particular grocery store, according to a research report involving Chicago area women. Among the other various factors looked for, in order of importance, are: produce quality, store appearance, efficient checkout and meat variety.

Food costs less at Mayfair!

Again last week, we compared food prices with the major supermarkets in this area.

"Specials", "total discount", and most other kinds of prices were compared. In this survey of July 20 to 21, Mayfair's overall food prices were lower than eight other top supermarket chains'.

To try to be fair, the comparisons were again with Uncle Sam's list, the same full list of items that the U.S. Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics, uses every month to measure food prices as part of the cost of living.

These comparisons show you could have saved from $.42 to $5.39 on the $40 to $50 worth of basic foods in this list.

With the high cost of living these days, really, can you afford not to buy your food at Mayfair?

Uncle Sam helps us prove that food cost less at Mayfair last week than at 8 other top chains

Bruno Councilman Sees Rush for Neighborhood Parks

The recent purchase of private lands to expand San Bruno's Grundy park has apparently produced the beginning of an expected flood of citizen requests for the purchase of other properties for park use.

That, at least, is the way Councilman George Corey interpreted a remark by resident Rose Urbach, of 440 Euclid Ave., at the last council meeting.

Mrs. Urbach told the Council that in the area where she lives there's a total lack of recreational facilities, but there was a vacant lot she hoped could be turned into a tot lot.

Corey responded that he had "cautioned against this" when the city agreed to purchase lands for Grundy Park. "I hope we will not be burdened by every neighborhood wanting the city to buy up lots for parks," said Corey.

The councilman said that if such were the case, the city would soon go bankrupt. He also said that "to appear to speak against this concept is difficult" because he realizes that the ones making the requests are "well-intentioned citizens."

Corey's point, in addition to the purchase cost, is that after the purchase, the city would be required to maintain such parks. He noted that the city is already spending approximately $500,000 annually on parks and recreation activities.

Mrs. Urbach said that it was not her intention that the city purchase the land. She said she was only reiterating what has been stated before on many occasions; that there is no park or recreation facility in the area where she lives, and some of the residents are extremely concerned about this fact.

The area is bounded roughly on the west by El Camino Real, the south by San Bruno Avenue, the north by Forest Lane and the east by Huntington Avenue. It is part of an area often referred to as "the pie-shaped" section.

Mrs. Urbach said that her thoughts were that perhaps neighbors in the area could clean up the lot, maybe plant a lawn, add a bench and generally take care of it.

Of course, she added, it might be beneficial "for looks" if the city would help, such as preventing the litter of the property with debris. She said she has not spoken with the property owner, who no longer lives in the city.

Reportedly the property, located at the corner of Euclid and Easton, has been priced for sale at $20,000 and has been eyed by developers.

At one time, the residents of the pie-shaped area could travel to nearby Belle Air School playground, which is no longer accessible.

A special P-TA subcommittee of the Parks and Recreation Commission has designated the area as one of three in the city needing a small park.

One P-TA report had suggested the use of portable playgrounds for the area. Reportedly a small fund was even started toward the purchase of such equipment.

Councilman John Barnard, who said he tought the matter who said he thought the matter squelching any park possibilities, brought the matter of mini-parks before the Wednesday night meeting of the city's Park and Recreation Commission. There the problem was briefly discussed.

City Mgr. Gerald Minford has said a study already is underway to provide a park in that area.

Rec Trip to Fremont Pk.

For the week of August 7 to 9 local youngsters will have a chance to travel to Fremont Central Park with the Daly City Recreation Department. This week previously had been set aside for Montara Beach but due to better weather was changed to Fremont.

The park is in Fremont and is one of the finest recreation facilities in Northern California. For activities the children can choose between swimming in the large lagoon, fishing or boating in the lake in back of the lagoon, hiking on well-marked nature trails, sunbathing and lunch can be had on a sandy beach, with games on the wide lawns.

"FINANCE" GRAND OPENING

WE NOW CARRY OUR OWN CONTRACTS! WHAT DOES THIS MEAN TO YOU? . . . SIMPLY THIS:

WE DECIDE ON YOUR CREDIT . . .
Regardless of your credit rating . . . let us (not the bank) be the judge. We are now in a position to help if you have the desire and ability to pay. If we wish—we can finance anyone!

OR YOU DECIDE ON YOUR CREDIT . . .
If your credit is excellent . . . rates, terms—etc., will be pretty much up to you.

PAYMENTS versus LEASING
IF YOU LEASE you do not own the car. The leasing company does, and cannot do with it as you wish. It's their car, not yours. Upon termination of most leases, unless you pay a much higher rate per month, you are responsible for the balance owing against the car. You may even end up owing more than it's worth. We sell directly to leasing companies and make a profit. They in turn make additional profit when they lease to you. Buying directly from us eliminates the 2nd mark up.
IF YOU BUY you own the car. It is yours to do with as you wish. No mileage limitations or restrictions of any kind. At the end of 3 years the car is paid for and you own it. Free and clear! No balance! No deficiencies!

Buy with or without a trade-in (paid for or not) The choice is yours!

Something special from Winchester. Winchoke® models give you 3 guns in 1. Now at special low prices. Thru Saturday only.

Use the same smooth-swinging, easy-pointing shotgun for upland shooting and waterfowl hunting. Shoot, trap or skeet through a simple choke change.

With a Winchoke® gun you have a single, handsome shotgun that looks and points the way you want it, whatever choke you choose. Winchester Winchokes are actually three interchangeable 2-inch shotgun barrels, precison-bored to a specific choke. The lightweight tubes are machined from chrome molybdenum steel. One is an improved cylinder; the second is a modified choke; and the third is a full choke. Together, they amount to 3 guns in 1. They fit tight, pattern right, and shoot where you point them. And there's no unsightly muzzle bulge.
